

FINANCIAL AID FOR COLLEGE

Don't panic about those scary high costs of attendance you see posted on college websites. Lots of students actually pay through grants, scholarships and other "free" funds by the time all is said and done. To make sure your family gets its fair share of financial aid, follow these very easy steps.

1. ESTABLISH A PLAN

KNOW WHAT YOU WANT

Think about the percentage of family income you want to pay for college. Do you want to attend an out-of-state school? Will you be able to live on campus or at home? If you know your school's cost of attendance, you can figure out how much you need to pay. If you want to pay less, you'll need to look for other sources of financial aid.

FIND A FINANCIAL "SAFETY SCHOOL"

Look for schools that give more aid to students who need it. Look for schools that have a high percentage of students who receive financial aid. Look for schools that have a high percentage of students who receive financial aid.

GET UP IN THE AIR

Apply to as many schools as you can. Don't be afraid to apply to schools that are out of your league. The more schools you apply to, the more likely you are to get into one that can help you pay for college.
