Gale Study Guides to Great Literature is a unique reference line composed of three series: Literary Masters, Literary Masterpieces, and Literary Topics. Convenient, comprehensive, and targeted toward current coursework, these guides place authors, titles, and topics into context for high school and college students as well as general researchers. Each Literary Masters volume introduces a significant author, covering basic biographical information. The related Literary Masterpieces volume explores a major title from this author's works in detail. Finally, the Literary Topics volume places the author and work within a relevant literary movement or genre.

AHA Newsletter American Historical Association, 1972 A History of the Modern World Robert Roswell Palmer, Joel Colton, 1971 Corruption and Realism in Late Socialist China Jeffrey Kinkley, 2007. The first analysis in any language of China's recent epic novels about official corruption, this book explores how Chinese authors treat the theme of official malfeasance in mass-market thrillers, how those works reflect modern life, and how they approach the taboo subject of regime change.
