Reassembling The Social An Introduction To Actor Network Theory:

Reassembling the Social Bruno Latour, 2007-09-06 Reassembling the Social is a fundamental challenge from one of the world's leading social theorists to how we understand society and the social Bruno Latour's contention is that the word social as used by Social Scientists has become laden with assumptions to the point where it has become misnomer When the adjective is applied to a phenomenon it is used to indicate a stabilized state of affairs a bundle of ties that in due course may be used to account for another phenomenon But Latour also finds the word used as if it described a type of material in a comparable way to an adjective such as wooden or steely Rather than simply indicating what is already assembled together it is now used in a way that makes assumptions about the nature of what is assembled It has become a word that designates two distinct things a process of assembling and a type of material distinct from others Latour shows why the social cannot be thought of as a kind of material or domain and disputes attempts to provide a social explanations of other states of affairs While these attempts have been productive and probably necessary in the past the very success of the social sciences mean that they are largely no longer so At the present stage it is no longer possible to inspect the precise constituents entering the social domain Latour returns to the original meaning of the social to redefine the notion and allow it to trace connections again It will then be possible to resume the traditional goal of the social sciences but using more refined tools Drawing on his extensive work examining the assemblages of nature Latour finds it necessary to scrutinize thoroughly the exact content of what is assembled under the umbrella of Society This approach a sociology of associations has become known as Actor Network Theory and this book is an essential introduction both for those seeking to understand Actor Network Theory or the ideas of one of its most influential proponents

Reassembling the Social. An Introduction to Actor-Network-Theory, 2007 Textsorten und kulturelle Kompetenz/Genre and Cultural Competence. Interdisziplinäre Beiträge zur Textwissenschaft/An Interdisciplinary Approach to the Study of Text Sigmund Kvam, Karen Patrick Knutsen, Peter Langemeyer, 2010 Der sprachliche Text in und zwischen den Kulturen der aus sprachwissenschaftlicher literaturwissenschaftlicher und sozialwissenschaftlicher Perspektive behandelt wird ist gemeinsamer Gegenstand der Beiträge Die Themen sind weit gefächert Neben theoretischen Fragen zum Textverstehen und zur Übersetzung werden Textsorten wie Gebrauchsanweisungen Lehrpläne und Romane des 20. Jahrhunderts untersucht sowie Kommunikationsstrukturen in der Wissenschaft im Bildungswesen im Gesundheitswesen und in der Wirtschaft analysiert Der Band ist aus einer interdisziplinären und internationalen Tagung hervorgegangen die 2009 an der Gesamthochschule Halden Norwegen stattfand Die Autoren arbeiten an Hochschulen und Universitäten in Dänemark Griechenland Norwegen Österreich und Schweden The major topic of this book is the communicative unit of the text both within and between cultures The concept of text is analyzed from a number of different perspectives for example from a linguistic perspective from the point of view of literary studies and from the field of the social sciences In addition to posing theoretical questions on genres and translation studies the authors examine a variety of texts such as instruction manuals study programmes contemporary literature as well as focusing on communicative structures in science educational systems health care and business The articles in this anthology were inspired by a workshop on the interdisciplinary study of the concept of text arranged at stfold University College in Halden Norway in 2009 The authors are researchers at universities and university colleges in Austria Denmark Greece Norway and Sweden The SAGE Handbook of E-learning Research Caroline Haythornthwaite, Richard Andrews, Jude

Network Theory Applied to Artists' Structures Liane Ditzer, 2016-02-03 Document from the year 2013 in the subject Art Installation Action Performance Art Modern Art grade 2 0 University of Dusseldorf Heinrich Heine Media and Cultural Studies language English abstract This work focuses on performance art networks The foundation and development of these virulent globally active structures was not conditional on the Internet It is a field that despite its international presence and continuity lasting more than 20 years has been documented in relatively few research projects It will investigate three projects that stand exemplarily for these networks within the scope of this work The Artists Village TAV in Singapore PAErsche in Germany and Black Market International BMI which has no national localisation A major part of this work will deal with the actions of these three networks of which TAV and BMI were founded back in the 1980ies when the notion of networking had a very different linguistic connotation However the visions and ideas of networking were already inherent in TAV and BMI This work does not aim to carry out any basic research into the topic of networks though it will investigate the factors that bring about and define the special performance art networks Theology and New Materialism John Reader, 2017-05-15 This book argues that identified weaknesses in recent theological engagement with New Materialism can be successfully addressed by incorporating insights from Relational Christian Realism Central themes are those of the relational and the apophatic as they represent different but essential strands of a materialist theology The relational refers to the work of Deleuze and its influence upon key New Materialist thinkers such as De Landa Bryant and Braidotti but supplemented from Relational Christian Realism by Latour and Badiou and with reference to the concept of the apophatic as found in Keller and Kearney Examining the concepts of transcendence human agency and a New Enlightenment the book moves into more practical areas of aesthetics and technology concluding with a response to the contemporary
