Sanctuary Unexpected Places Where God Found Me:

The Path of Peace Becca Stevens, 2010-10-01 It's easy to get lost in the busyness of every day. But taking a walk and discovering God's presence along the way will bring you back to where you need to be. The Walking Bible Study, a series of short readings and meditations, is your field guide to learning more about Scripture as you travel through nature and life. Wherever you walk, take it along with you and follow the paths of God. Walking changes us; it can transport our spirits from being weighed down by life into the joy of God's presence. Becca Stevens. Each study consists of four sessions. Sessions include prayer, Scripture, Becca's thoughts and stories, questions to think about or discuss, and activities. The Path of Peace. In this study, Becca looks at various nature images used in Scripture from Isaiah to Paul that describe God's paths. Being in nature allows us to glimpse the peaceable kingdom and to experience the gift of creation. We are reminded that God is on every path and that in looking at God's handiwork, we discover again the specific and unique ways that we are loved by God.

The Path of Love Becca Stevens, 2010-10-01 It's easy to get lost in the busyness of every day. But taking a walk and discovering God's presence along the way will bring you back to where you need to be. The Walking Bible Study, a series of short readings and meditations, is your field guide to learning more about Scripture as you travel through nature and life. Each study consists of four sessions. Sessions include prayer, Scripture, Becca's thoughts and stories, questions to think about or discuss, and activities. The Path of Love. The world was created when God took the two chaotic elements of the universe that do not allow life: the deep and the darkness, and encompassed them into a loving creation that is called Good. The story of Love is rooted in creation and is so powerful that in its culminating act, it rolls the stone away at the break of Easter morning. Funeral for a Stranger Becca Stevens, 2010-09-01 I have seen water move rocks. I have seen thistles break through boulders. If water and flowers can move stones, surely love can. Becca Stevens. From Funeral for a Stranger. In this meditation on living and dying, Becca Stevens shares moving and hilarious stories about her life, love, friends, and our many families. This delicately formed narrative is also a window into the soul of a priest I loved; it and will hold it in my heart with gratitude for years to come. Phyllis Tickle, author of The Great Emergence: How Christianity Is Changing and Why. Loneliness finds connections; despair meets celebration and fear discovers faith. Join Becca on her journey to a funeral for a stranger. God will be there. Don Schlitz, Hall of Fame songwriter of The Gambler. With elegant simplicity, Becca Stevens escorts the reader to the banks of the deepest spiritual wellspring. Surely she ranks among our most gifted teachers on the things that matter most of all. Stephen Bauman, author of Simple Truths: On Values, Civility, and Our Common Good. The Path of Justice Becca Stevens, 2010-09-01 It's easy to get lost in the busyness of every day.
