Report Golden Gate Kindergarten Association, 1891 Annual Report Golden Gate Kindergarten Association, San Francisco, 1886 Southern Pacific Bulletin, 1929 From Holy Hour to Happy Hour Francis X. Gaeta, Frank Gaeta, 1996 Christmas on Television Diane Werts, 2006 Christmas just isn't Christmas without Christmas on TV Whether it's the made-for-television specials of Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer and Frosty the Snowman or a MASH Christmas in Korea Kramer playing Santa on Seinfeld or the annual holiday disaster on The Simpsons or South Park television's many representations of this beloved holiday have become as essential a part of our holiday season as lights, gifts, or mistletoe. In this entertaining chronicle of television and the Christmas season, former Television Critics Association President Diane Werts weaves discussion of the many programs that have appeared during the holiday season throughout the years with interviews with writers, producers, and stars. Not only are readers given a chance to relive their favorite holiday moments on TV, but also to gain illuminating cultural insights into the increasingly strong bond that unites these two American traditions. Diane Werts's book is the first to cover the entire history of the depiction of Christmas on television and includes a discussion of programs that celebrate Hanukkah, Kwanzaa, and the winter solstice. An introductory overview helps readers to understand the basis on which television's success with the holidays is based, and chronological chapters go on to consider the many different ways in which the season has been celebrated in variety shows, sitcoms, specials, and dramas of the past six decades.

Camp Cooke and Vandenberg Air Force Base, 1941-1966 Jeffrey E. Geiger, 2014-02-28

America's first West Coast armored and infantry training installation was built in California in 1941 and named Camp Cooke. It is currently known as Vandenberg Space Force Base. During WWII, more than 400 military units trained at Cooke, peaking at more than 36,000 soldiers. The largest units that rotated through Cooke were the 5th, 6th, 11th, 13th, and 20th Armored Divisions and the 86th and 97th Infantry Divisions. Having honed their fighting skills at Cooke, they prevailed in fierce battles across France and Germany. The 6th, 11th, and 20th Armored Divisions also took part in the liberation of Nazi concentration camps at Buchenwald, Mauthausen, and Dachau, respectively. Camp Cooke also included a large compound for German prisoners of war. This book takes the reader through the war years in a series of notable events transpiring at Cooke and on the war front. It follows a similar path in discussing the Korean War. Two National Guard infantry divisions, the 40th from California and the 44th from Illinois, were the largest units at Cooke during the war. Dozens of smaller organizations also rotated through Camp Cooke. During both conflicts, visiting USO shows at Cooke featured some of the most popular celebrities and entertainers of the day, including Bob Hope, Bette Davis, the Three Stooges, Susan Hayward, Kay Kaiser, Louie Armstrong, Dorothy Lamour, Orson Welles, Sammy Davis Jr., Joe DiMaggio, world heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis, and many more. In 1957, Cooke was transferred to the Air Force and a year later renamed Vandenberg AFB. In 1959, the first Atlas ICBM missiles, equipped with nuclear warheads, were placed on alert at Vandenberg. That same year, America's first reconnaissance spy satellite was launched from the base. Known as Corona, it used the cover name Discoverer to conceal its true mission In discussing early launch programs the book reveals several significant accidents and successes It also discusses President Kennedy s visit to the base and the humorous story of Russian Premier Khrushchev s train ride past the base and across America which almost ended in a diplomatic incident The book s military theme encompasses more than 80 years of American history and spotlights California s inextricable role in world events Through hot wars and a cold war it is a story about ordinary people performing extraordinary services for their country and fellow countrymen during those momentous times Printing ,1930 A.D. ,1978 The End of the Innocence Lawrence R. Samuel,2007-10-01 From April 1964 to October 1965 some 52 million people from around the world flocked to the New York World s Fair an experience that lives on in the memory of many individuals and in America s collective consciousness Taking a perceptive look back at the last of the great world s fairs Samuel offers a vivid portrait of this seminal event and of the cultural climate that surrounded it He also counters critics assessments of the fair as the ugly duckling of global expositions Opening five months after President Kennedy s assassination the fair allowed millions to celebrate international fellowship while the conflict in Vietnam came to a boil This event was perhaps the last time so many from so far could gather to praise harmony while ignoring cruel realities on such a gargantuan scale This world s fair glorified the postwar American dream of limitless optimism even as a counterculture of sex drugs and rock n roll came into being It could rightly be called the last gasp of that dream The End of the Innocence Samuel s work charts the fair from inception in 1959 to demolition in 1966 and provides a broad overview of the social and cultural dynamics that led to the birth of the event It also traces thematic aspects of the fair with its focus on science technology and the world of the future Accessible entertaining and informative the book is richly illustrated with contemporary photographs The Grizzly Bear ,1952 Incentive Marketing ,1975 The Elementary School Library Collection Lois Winkel,Eileen Palmer Burke,1990
