Sculpture Of Life:

Art in America 1945-1970 (LOA #259) Various, 2014-10-09 Experience the creative explosion that transformed American art in the words of the artists writers and critics who were there In the quarter century after the end of World War II a new generation of painters sculptors and photographers transformed the face of American art and shifted the center of the art world from Paris to New York Signaled by the triumph of abstraction and the ascendancy of painters such as Pollock Rothko de Kooning and Kline this revolution generated an exuberant and contentious body of writing without parallel in our cultural history In the words of editor art critic and historian Jed Perl there has never been a period when the visual arts have been written about with more mongrel energy with more unexpected mixtures of reportage rhapsody analysis advocacy editorializing and philosophy In this Library of America volume Perl gathers for the first time the most vibrant contemporary accounts of this momentous period by artists critics poets gallery owners and other observers conveying the sweep and energy of a cultural scene dominated in the poet James Schuyler's words by the floods of paint in whose crashing surf we all scramble Here are statements by the most significant artists and major critical essays by Clement Greenberg Susan Sontag Hilton Kramer and other influential figures Here too is an electrifying array of responses by poets and novelists reflecting the free interplay between different art forms John Ashbery on Andy Warhol James Agee on Helen Levitt James Baldwin on Beauford Delaney Truman Capote on Richard Avedon Tennessee Williams on Hans Hofmann and Jack Kerouac on Robert Frank The atmosphere of the time comes to vivid life in memoirs diaries and journalism by Peggy Guggenheim Dwight Macdonald Calvin Tomkins and others Lavishly illustrated with scores of black and white images and a 32 page color insert this is a book that every art lover will treasure Neo-avant-garde David Hopkins, 2006 The neo avant garde of the 1950s 60s and 70s is due for a thoroughgoing reassessment This collection of essays represents the first full scale attempt to deal with the concept from an interdisciplinary standpoint A number of essays in this book concentrate on fine art particularly painting and sculpture thereby adding significantly to the growing art historical literature in the field but a number of the contributions also focus on poetry performance theatre film architecture and music Given that there are also major essays here dealing with geographical blindspots in current neo avant garde studies with thematic issues such as art's entanglement with gender mass culture and politics with key neo avant garde publications and with the purely theoretical problems attaching to the theorisation of the topic this collection offers a multi dimensional approach to the subject which is noticeably lacking elsewhere Taken together these essays represent a consolidated attempt at re thinking the cultural logic of the immediate post World War II period The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art, 1889 Harper's New Monthly Magazine, 1875 The American Catalogue, 1891 Art and Theory of Art Rudolf Steiner, 2021-10-19 An Author's Summary 1888 Four Essays Written between 1890 and 1898 Eight Lectures between 1909 and 1921 CW 271 The challenge of saying something about art was personal for Rudolf Steiner He experienced it as deeply connected with his biography It is not for nothing that in the last lecture of this volume he points to his repeated attempts to develop a new approach and new forms of expression for speaking about art We find at least three forms of this attempted approach in this book Zvi Szir from the introduction The subject practice and vital importance of art was a thread that ran through Rudolf Steiner's life from his early work as a scholar of Goethe through his time as an editor of a literary and arts journal in Berlin in the 1890s and to his two and a half decades as a spiritual researcher and teacher Understanding and articulating the significance of art was a perennial challenge for Rudolf Steiner This volume of Steiner's Collected Works is unique in that it showcases a survey of both early written works and later lectures to anthroposophic audiences and in doing so presents a picture of a lifetime of intensive effort to convey something essential about the arts Beginning with his early philosophical work and literary criticism at the end of the nineteenth century and on into his later lectures this volume follows Steiner's endeavor to reveal in words the mystery obscured by the vague concept of what art is Viewed as a whole this volume forms one of the most provocative collections of the twentieth century on the subject of art It offers a unique analysis of the origin foundation and method of the creative process This book is a translation of Kunst und Kunsterkenntnis Grundlagen einer neuen Ästhetik 3rd edition published by Rudolf Steiner Verlag Dornach Switzerland 2010 GA 271 Art and the Challenge of Markets Volume 1 Victoria D. Alexander, Samuli Hägg, Simo Häyrynen, Erkki Sevänen, 2018-01-16 Art and the Challenge of Markets Volumes 1 2 examine the politics of art and culture in light of the profound changes that have taken place in the world order since the 1980s and 1990s The contributors explore how in these two decades the neoliberal or market based model of capitalism started to spread from the economic realm to other areas of society As a result many aspects of contemporary Western societies increasingly function in the same way as the private enterprise sector under traditional market capitalism The first volume of this two volume collection considers a broad range of national cultural policies from European and North American countries and examines the strengthening of international and transnational art worlds in music visual arts film and television The chapters cover cultural policy and political culture in the United States United Kingdom Germany France Switzerland the Nordic countries the Balkans and Slovenia and address the extent to which Western nations have shifted from welfare state to market based ideologies Tensions between centres and peripheries in global art worlds are considered as well as complex interactions between nations and international and transnational art worlds and regional variations in the audiovisual market Both volumes provide students and scholars across a range of disciplines with an incisive comparative overview of the politics of art and culture and national international and transnational art worlds in contemporary capitalism Performance Artists Talking in the Eighties Linda Montano, 2000 This work contains interviews with performance artists who talk about how certain childhood experiences have influenced and resurfaced in their work as an adult The discussions focus on the relationship between art and life American Art to 1900 Sarah Burns, John Davis, 2023-09-01 From the simple assertion that words matter in the study of visual art this comprehensive but eminently readable volume gathers an extraordinary selection of words painters and sculptors writing in their diaries critics responding to a sensational exhibition groups of artists issuing stylistic manifestos and poets reflecting on particular works of art Along with a broad array of canonical texts Sarah Burns and John Davis have assembled an astonishing variety of unknown little known or undervalued documents to convey the story of American art through the many voices of its contemporary practitioners consumers and commentators American Art to 1900 highlights such critically important themes as women artists African American representation and expression regional and itinerant artists Native Americans and the frontier popular culture and vernacular imagery institutional history and more With its hundreds of explanatory headnotes providing essential context and guidance to readers this book reveals the documentary riches of American art and its many intersecting histories in unprecedented breadth depth and detail From the simple assertion that words matter in the study of visual art this comprehensive but eminently readable volume gathers an extraordinary selection of words painters and sculptors writing in their diaries critics responding to a sensational ex
