The Seasons of a Man's Life, 1985      The Seasons of a Man's Life Daniel J. Levinson, 1979 This book explores and explains the specific periods of personal development through which all humans must pass      The Psychological Development of Girls and Women Sheila Greene, 2003 Greene's approach places primary importance on temporality itself and on the competing discourses on time age and development which play an active role in the construction of the lives of girls and women Essential but often neglected insights from the more compelling developmental and feminist theories are woven together within a theoretical framework that emphasizes temporality emergence and human agency The result is a liberating theory of women's psychological development as constantly emerging and changing in time rather than as static and fixed by their nature socio cultural context and personal history      Outline lessons on men of the Bible, 2nd series, New Testament, and the Church seasons Robert Root Resker, 1895      The Inner World of Abraham Lincoln Michael Burlingame, 1997 Based primarily on long neglected manuscript and newspaper sources and especially on reminiscences of people who knew him this psychobiography casts new light on Lincoln Burlingame uses a blend of Freudian and Jungian theory to interpret the psyche of the 16th president      Routledge's Sunday Album for Children. Steel,1979      Quiver ,1888 V 12 contains The Archer Christmas 1877      The Religious Feeling Newman Smyth,1877 In the struggle for existence which is ever going on in literature as in life a new book should show some variation however slight from others of its kind by means of which it may be better fitted to the surrounding conditions of thought and hope to survive for a season The reason this little book has for its appearance is a slight departure from the usual forms in which the evidences of faith are presented by which it is sought to adapt them more perfectly to the sceptical surroundings of thought in our day The variation by which this new venture among the great multitude of books hopes to live and to be useful may be said to be the result of a process of natural selection in an American mind from the German idealism and the English positivism The substance of it first formed itself in the author s mind during a season of quiet study of modern German thought and he has since found the reasoning which then enabled his own faith to survive useful in conversation with friends whose scientific studies had both brought them into unwilling doubts concerning those spiritual truths which give to life its real value and at the same time thrown the prevalent proofs of religion out of all relation to their habits of mind Preface PsycINFO Database Record c 2010 APA all rights reserved
