Seasons of Faith and Conscience Bill Wylie Kellermann, Seasons of Faith and Conscience Bill Wylie-Kellermann, 2008-11-07 Seasons of Faith and Conscience challenges religious activists and the wider church with an answer to the question What is the connection between faith and politics Every act of worship Kellermann says every occasion where the sovereignty of the word of God is acknowledged is always and everywhere expressly political In a profound biblical and theological reflection Kellermann begins by investigating the political implications of worship and liturgy both in the Hebrew Bible and in the New Testament He goes on to review the history of confessional politics those situations in which Christians have felt their historical situation to be so grave as to call into question the very identity of the church Recent examples include the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany and the Kairos document from South Africa Kellermann explores analogies in our own situation the continuing arms buildup the international debt system and the war against the poor in the Third World Seasons of Faith and Conscience concludes with a series of moving meditations on the key seasons and events of the liturgical calendar Advent Christmas Epiphany Lent Easter and Pentecost Fromm und frei Peter Scherle, 2008 The Word on the Street Stanley P. Saunders, Charles L. Campbell, 2006-09-01 WHAT HAPPENS WHEN TWO SEMINARY PROFESSORS LEAVE their classrooms and spend time among the homeless people and teach on city streets In this unique collection of essays and sermons Stanley P Saunders and Charles L Campbell reflect on their encounters with the homeless folks in Atlanta and seek to discern the way of Jesus on the streets of the city These passionate often moving writings demonstrate the power of Scripture to shape the way we see the world and they explore the significance of social location for exegesis ethics worship and preaching From the perspective of the street central Christian practices such as baptism Eucharist and preaching come to life in new ways Scripture takes on fresh meaning too while ancient insights into the principalities and powers the practice of scapegoating and the organization of households become contemporary and immediate Even theological themes grace and discipleship sin and forgiveness crucifixion and resurrection look different when taken to the street Accented by six powerful artworks from Christina Bray's exhibit Street Prayers Spiritual Journeys this book also sheds light on the problem of homelessness in America and calls the church to action Through their reflection on personal experiences and their interpretation of biblical texts Saunders and Campbell provide meaningful theological categories for addressing pressing social issues in the urban context making The Word on the Street a helpful resource on the realities of poverty race and injustice Resources for Preaching and Worship-Year A Hannah Ward, Jennifer Wild, 2004-01-01 This is the third volume published in a three volume set of lectionary resources providing preachers and worship leaders of all denominations a host of written material for worship and reflection Designed to complement the three volumes in WJK's acclaimed Texts for Preaching this book weaves together a rich tapestry of quotations meditations poems and prayers With material from both classic and contemporary spiritual writings Resources for Preaching and Worship complements the lectionary readings for Sundays and important festival days in the church's year. Biblical and thematic indexes are included.

Principalities in Particular Bill Wylie-Kellermann, 2017-09-28 If the 1960s were a watershed in American politics they were no less formative a period in political theology as figures like Jacques Ellul, Karl Barth, Walter Wink, Daniel and Philip Berrigan, and William Stringfellow shed new light on the biblical language of the powers. In these essays, activist pastor Bill Wylie Kellermann critically appreciates the legacy of these figures and gives an urgent specificity to the theology of the powers relating biblical concepts to contemporary struggles for civil rights, clean air, fair housing, safe affordable water, public education, and civic responsibility after the 2016 election, highlighting throughout the vital importance of a community of struggle connected through time and across space. The book's uniqueness lies in its practicality as biblical and theological analyses arise from and are addressed to particular historical moments and given ecclesial and movement struggles. Appendixes present resources for teaching and training people in movement organizing and for thinking through the presence of the powers in our life and ministry.

Paul and Economics Thomas R. Blanton IV, Raymond Pickett, 2017-06-15 The social context of Paul's mission and congregations has been the study of intense investigation for decades but only in recent years have questions of economic realities and the relationship between rich and poor come to the forefront. In Paul and Economics leading scholars address a variety of topics in contemporary discussion including an overview of the Roman economy, the economic profile of Paul and of his communities, and stratification within them; architectural considerations regarding where they met; food and drink; idol meat and the Lord's Supper; material conditions of urban poverty; patronage; slavery; travel; gender and status; the collection for Jerusalem; and the role of Marxist theory and the question of political economy in Paul scholarship.

From Fast to Feast Cas Wepener, 2009 Today some years after the first democratic elections in South Africa as well as the final report of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) it is clear that reconciliation is still needed on all terrains of South African society. More and more people are becoming aware of unchanneled emotions such as guilt, fury, revenge, and grief which are still alive in South Africa and which come to fore in different ways. It seems as if reconciliation is a process that will in fact take years if not generations. The task of the TRC has been completed but the task of reconciliation on all levels in South African society and the debate surrounding it are far from complete. Very little research has been conducted to understand both the process and the kinds of reconciliation rituals that are needed. And this is exactly the aim of the research described in this book. The research described here aims at making a contribution towards the process of reconciliation in South Africa by specifically looking at one small but important element in that process, namely ritual. To this end several ritual probes were conducted including an ethnographic probe describing research by means of participatory observation in local South African communities as well as a cultural anthropological, biblical, historical, and descriptive probe. From these probes ritual qualities were distilled which can be used for the liturgical inculturation of rituals of reconciliation in South Africa.

Currents in the Interpretation of

Paul Neil Elliott, 2024-09-05 The apostle Paul has long been championed or criticized as a Christian thinker as a brilliant theological genius or an enthusiastic convert who spun arguments to justify his new allegiances In these essays Neil Elliott engages some of the most provocative currents in contemporary scholarship including Paul and the nature of violence the presumptions of religious cultural or national innocence in particular interpretations of the apostle the recent enthusiasm for Paul in some streams of Marxist thought competing construals of economic realities in Paul's day and our own and questions surrounding Paul's legacy today

Who Will Roll Away the Stone? Ched Myers, 1994 The author of the critically acclaimed Binding the Strong Man exposes the social and spiritual stones that impede us in our development and growth as Christians In every age writes Myers disciples despair that the story has ended only to discover that the stone has been rolled away reopening the possibility and imperative of following the Way of Jesus As a sequel to Binding the Strong Man Who Will Roll Away the Stone brings Myers study of the gospel of Mark full circle The first book provided a compelling reading of Mark's gospel as a manual of radical discipleship in the ancient Roman empire Who Will Roll Away the Stone picks up and extends the gospel's challenge specifically to those living in the contemporary imperial context Each chapter opens with classic questions from within the gospel itself Beginning with Peter's denial of Jesus Who Will Roll Away the Stone shows how and why first world Christians politically free socially mobile and resource rich seem typically unable or unwilling to struggle for social change Myers uses three of the most troubling and problematic of recent events the Los Angeles riots the Gulf War the Columbus quinqucentennial to demonstrate how the subtle complexities of a culture of technological wizardry information overload and short term memory can be recognized as blocking the first step on the journey of discipleship Myers then turns to the second stage of discipleship which is conversion literally a call to change direction both as individuals and as a society He continues with a deconstruction of the modus vivendi of U S culture using experiments in other ways of living including social relocation and nonviolent politics He then moves into the third stage of the call to discipleship to reconstruct the church and the world through positive action building solidarity with one another and with the poor accepting and celebrating diversity and its gifts and reclaiming the discourse of the reign of God from those who use it to defend the status quo

Ambassadors of Reconciliation Ched Myers, 2009 Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia), 1993 Ambassadors of Reconciliation: Diverse Christian practices of restorative justice and peacemaking Ched Myers, Elaine Enns, 2009 Restorative justice refers to a social movement that seeks to repair interpersonal communal and social injustices without recourse to violence or retribution This is the second of two volumes exploring a theology and practice of faith rooted restorative justice and peacemaking

Reckoning with Apocalypse Dale Aukerman, 1993 Aukerman reclaims biblical prophecy from misuse by those who use it as a sanction for violence in this bold book which endeavors to rescue the Book of Revelation from the hands of the radical right wing fundamentalists
