Seattle Unfolds:

Seattle's Belltown Clark Humphrey, 2007 When most of Seattle's original founders settled at today's Pioneer Square William Bell set up his own neighborhood a couple of miles up the waterfront Bell's Town grew in the early 20th century when Seattle leveled the adjacent Denny Hill and the newly flat regrade became a low rent district of bars hotels and industry In recent decades Belltown has become one of the nation's fastest growing urban neighborhoods with upscale condominium towers and fashionable restaurants This new volume chronicles in more than 200 images the colorful history of this diverse and constantly changing area Readers will enjoy early glimpses of such landmarks as the Seafair Torchlight Parade the Seattle Center Monorail the legendary Dog House and the Edgewater Inn Where Dreams Unfold M. According to Filipino island folklore every life has two stages of destiny hardships endured as a caterpillar that ultimately guides one's flight as a butterfly Teesa Paruparo's family needed rescuing Her father Manny's journey began in a cold and rundown orphanage in Carigara at the turn of the century Its hardships only served to shape his dreams of a better life but at what cost Marita her mother lived the life of an island princess in the picturesque fishing village of De La Cruz Her peaceful carefree days were shattered when her village was savagely attacked during World War II resulting in the heartbreaking murder of her father mother and brother and in years of struggling to survive as one of thousands of war refugee children Manny and Marita's caterpillar hardships unfortunately affected their children Teesa and her four older brothers Thomas Pete Auggie and Sam Struggling to discover their own paths in 1960s Los Angeles amid their family dysfunction and abuse brought them to the brink of disintegration But generations of adversity were infused with a strong common thread of hope And from hope came understanding and finally forgiveness not only of their parents but also of themselves Teesa Paruparo's family needed rescuing and it would come from a surprising and unexpected source Seattle Unfolds
