The School Counselor's Guide to Surviving the First Year Heather M. Couch, 2019-12-11 The School Counselor's Guide to Surviving the First Year offers a comprehensive look into the first year school counseling experience. This practical guide includes topics from internship to professional development from an intimate perspective within the context of real life scenarios. Drawing from personal experiences, journal articles, textbooks, and excerpts by numerous professional school counselors, it fuses what a school counseling trainee learns in their graduate program and the field experience they get into one unique guide. Emphasizing hands-on approaches, this volume offers personal as well as professional steps toward success in the ins and outs of counseling. This book is a valuable toolkit for the developmental journey of school counselors in training and beginning school counselors.

Special Report: Kuwait: Resilience & Management in Times of Crisis Peter Howson, Necessity has always been the mother of invention. Time and again, history has demonstrated that in times of hardship, new opportunities emerge that have had a profound impact on what followed. For Kuwait, the arrival of COVID-19, as with everywhere else across the globe, has presented an unprecedented type of challenge. Kuwait's response as a country and its ability to rally together has not only mitigated the worst exigencies of the virus but poised Kuwait to be ready to thrive as the new normal is established. This 24-page special report seeks to bring attention to the key themes that have emerged during this period as well as shine a spotlight on the core decision makers whose experiences help contextualise Kuwait's wider ability to navigate the pandemic.

A Practical Guide to Family Therapy Andrew Wallis, Kerrie James, Paul Rhodes, 2024-06-12 Grounded in systemic family therapy and drawing on a variety of other models to enhance skills development, this book is a comprehensive practical guide to working with families. This second edition is thoroughly updated and includes new chapters which cover working with First Nations Families, diversity, and family therapy understanding emotions and dialogical reflective processes. The book begins with a focus on the therapeutic relationship and use of self as a foundation and from there provides the reader with practical skill-oriented guidelines for working with families. From the first session to addressing the complexities of separated parents, parent-child relational breaches, family of origin issues, wider systems, managing emotions, diversity, and much more, the book takes the reader through core practices that will become essential skills for family work. Written by an expert team of authors committed to innovative and contextual practice, this book is for experienced clinicians who want to learn to work with families and for beginning therapists to learn from a structured approach to developing complex skills. Chapters 2, 3, and 14 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International license.
