Europe: A Philosophical History, Part 2 Simon Glendinning, 2021-07-14 Europe is inseparable from its history That history has been extensively studied in terms of its political history its economic history its religious history its literary and cultural history and so on Could there be a distinctively philosophical history of Europe Not a history of philosophy in Europe but a history of Europe that focuses on what in its history and identity ties it to philosophy In the two volumes of Europe A Philosophical History The Promise of Modernity and Beyond Modernity Simon Glendinning takes up this question telling the story of Europe s history as a philosophical history In the wake of two world wars of European origin Europe s modern promise of universal peace freedom and well being for all humanity lay in ruins In Part 2 Beyond Modernity Glendinning picks up the story of this promise after the Second World War Taking in Isaiah Berlin s defence of a pluralist ideal Francis Fukuyama s vision of a new end of history in liberal democracy and Jacques Derrida s critique of the very idea of an end of history Glendinning invites us to affirm a new philosophical historical self understanding not the history of the rational animal on the way to its final end with Europe at the head but a history of the unpredictably self transforming animal without a final end In this context Glendinning argues Europe remains promising its cosmopolitan heritage opening a future beyond its exhausted modernity Part 1 The Promise of Modernity is available now from Routledge ISBN 9781032015804 A Select Library of Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers of the Christian Church Philip Schaff, Henry Wace, 1899 A Select Library of Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers of the Christian Church: St. Hilary of Poitiers, John of Damascus, 1899 Philip Schaff, Henry Wace, 1899 Rules and Regulations, Mount Rainier National Park United States.
