

Government

Government, Rules, and Laws

Why we need them

A government is what runs a country. The government is a group of people that have power. The government has many jobs. They make sure that people are safe. They make sure the police and fire departments work. The government also makes sure the military keeps people safe. They work with other countries. The main purpose of the government is to make laws and keep people safe.

Every country needs rules and laws. These are important. They explain what is right and wrong. They tell people how they can behave in a country. Rules are how people are taught to behave. For example, there are rules to follow in a baseball game.

Laws are rules from the government. There are many laws. There are simple laws. If a person drives too fast, they get a speeding ticket. There are speed limits to keep people from going too fast. If a person breaks a more serious law, they may go to jail. The punishment is based on the law.
