Breaking All The Rules Kristian A. Smith, 2022-05-18 Rule Keeping theological frameworks are failing us In Breaking All The Rules Kristian A Smith introduces Greatest Commandment Theology as an ancient framework for modern faith This book doesn't provide answers for your questions It provides questions for your answers The challenge is to remove the question What does the Bible say about that and replace it with How does the Greatest Commandment apply here Rules for Sex on Wedding Night Herbert I. Kavet, 1997-02-01 Bride's Guide to Sex and Marriage Herbert I. Kauet, 1999

The Coupling Convention : Sex, Text, and Tradition in Black Women's Fiction Ann duCille Associate Professor of English and African American Studies Wesleyan University, 1993-10-19 What does the tradition of marriage mean for people who have historically been deprived of its legal status Generally thought of as a convention of the white middle class the marriage plot has received little attention from critics of African American literature In this study Ann duCille uses texts such as Nella Larsen's Quicksand 1928 and Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God 1937 to demonstrate that the African American novel like its European and Anglo American counterparts has developed around the marriage plot what she calls the coupling convention Exploring the relationship between racial ideology and literary and social conventions duCille uses the coupling convention to trace the historical development of the African American women's novel She demonstrates the ways in which black women appropriated this novelistic device as a means of expressing and reclaiming their own identity More than just a study of the marriage tradition in black women's fiction however The Coupling Convention takes up and takes on many different meanings of tradition It challenges the notion of a single black literary tradition or of a single black feminist literary canon grounded in specifically black female language and experience as it explores the ways in which white and black male and female mainstream and marginalized traditions and canons have influenced and cross fertilized each other Much more than a period study The Coupling Convention spans the period from 1853 to 1948 addressing the vital questions of gender subjectivity race and the canon that inform literary study today In this original work duCille offers a new paradigm for reading black women's fiction Law, Sex, and Christian Society in Medieval Europe James A.

Brundage, 2009-02-15 This monumental study of medieval law and sexual conduct explores the origin and development of the Christian church's sex law and the systems of belief upon which that law rested Focusing on the Church's own legal system of canon law James A Brundage offers a comprehensive history of legal doctrines covering the millennium from A D 500 to 1500 concerning a wide variety of sexual behavior including marital sex adultery homosexuality concubinage prostitution masturbation and incest His survey makes strikingly clear how the system of sexual control in a world we have half forgotten has shaped the world in which we live today The regulation of marriage and divorce as we know it today together with the outlawing of bigamy and polygamy and the imposition of criminal sanctions on such activities as sodomy fellatio cunnilingus and bestiality are all based in large measure upon ideas and beliefs about sexual morality that became law in Christian

Europe in the Middle Ages Brundage's book is consistently learned enormously useful and frequently entertaining It is the best we have on the relationships between theological norms legal principles and sexual practice Peter Iver Kaufman Church History

Arranged Marriage Péter Berta, 2023-03-17 Arranged Marriage The Politics of Tradition Resistance and Change shows how arranged marriage practices have been undergoing transformation as a result of global and other processes such as the revolution of digital technology democratization of transnational mobility or shifting significance of patriarchal power structures The ethnographically informed chapters not only highlight how the gendered and intergenerational politics of agency autonomy choice consent and intimacy work in the contexts of partner choice and management of marriage but also point out that arranged marriages are increasingly varied and they can be reshaped reinvented and reinterpreted flexibly in response to individual family religious class ethnic and other desires needs and constraints The authors convincingly demonstrate that a nuanced investigation of the reasons complex dynamics and consequences of arranged marriages offers a refreshing analytical lens that can significantly contribute to a deeper understanding of other phenomena such as globalization modernization and international migration as well as patriarchal value regimes intergenerational power imbalances and gendered subordination and vulnerability of women

Netherlandish and Italian Female Portraiture in the Fifteenth Century Elisabetta Toreno, 2025-10-01 This book investigates the aesthetic and conceptual characteristics of fifteenth century female portraiture on panel Portraits of women increased substantially during this century They formed part of a material and a visual culture borne out of the rapid rise of an oligarchy from entrepreneurial activities that was especially advanced in the urbanised territories of Italy and Flanders For this reason the portraits in this book are by Netherlandish and Italian painters They are simultaneously illustrative of the emancipation of the genre from its medieval idiom and of the responses to the matrix of patriarchy under which society was organised Patriarchy is an androcentric structure that places women in a paradoxical situation of legal and social disenfranchisement on the account of purported psychophysical inadequacy whilst making them the catalysts through arranged marriages for the success of the spheres of power which are controlled by men Thus these portraits are also a window into women s lives in this structure This book is the first systematic study of their sign system and of the feminine experience of seeing and being seen at the intersection of disciplines that include art history anthropology legal history philosophy The surprising results suggest new interpretations of form and function in female portraiture women s active role in the imaging process and the early instances of a pro women ideology      Sex Ater 40 Toni Goffe,1998-02      Law, Justice, and Society in the Medieval World Esther Liberman Cuenca,M. Christina Bruno,Anthony Perron,2025-05-06 This coursebook is the first full length study of cinematic legal medievalism or the modern interpretation of medieval law in film and popular culture For more than a century filmmakers have used the Middle Ages to produce popular entertainment and comment on contemporary issues Each of the twenty chapters in Law Justice and Society in the Medieval World represents an original contribution to our understanding of how medieval regulations laws and customs have been depicted in film It offers a window into the rules of medieval society through the lens of popular culture This book includes analyses of recent and older films avant garde as well as popular cinema Films discussed in this book include Braveheart 1995 Kingdom of Heaven 2005 The Passion of Joan of Arc 1928 The Last Duel 2021 The Green Knight 2021 The Little Hours 2017 and The Adventures of Robin Hood 1938 among others Each chapter explores the contemporary context of the film in question the medieval literary or historical milieu the film references and the lessons the film can teach us about the medieval world Attached to each chapter is an appendix of medieval documentary sources and reading questions to prompt critical reflection      Women Over 40 are Better Because ... Szynski Jill A.,Herb I. Kavet,1997      The Natural Laws of Sexual Life Anton Nystrom,1912      The Social Dimension of Sex Roy F. Baumeister,Dianne M. Tice,2001 A contemporary provocative exploration of the social dimension of sexuality with a focus on applying research findings Much of the scientific writing about sex has focused on the inner biological processes and clinical problems and treatments neglecting the important social dimension of sexuality This unique volume merges research in social psychology and human sexuality using themes from social psychology to shed light on sexual behavior and demonstrate how sexual behavior is shaped by social surroundings      Rules of Engagement Lis Harris,1995 Harris looks at the state of modern marriages by telling the stories of four couples placing their stories in the context of marriage in the United States      Living by the Rules Rubel Shelly,1982      Sex and Religion in the Bible Calum M. Carmichael,2010 If we look to the Bible for historical accounts of ancient life we make profound error So contends Calum Carmichael in this reading of some of the Hebrew Bible and New Testament s most famous narratives      Over the Hill Herbert I.
