Rusia Postsovietica La:

La Russia post-sovietica AA.VV.,2018-01-23 Dalla scomparsa dell'Unione Sovietica la Federazione Russa s'interroga sulla propria posizione nel mondo tra la nostalgia del passato imperiale e il ridimensionamento della nuova Russia. Le risposte a questo interrogativo sono state diverse negli anni riflettendo da un lato la situazione politica ed economica interna e dall'altro i mutamenti del contesto strategico globale. Si passati così dall'occidentalizzazione della presidenza Eltsin al cambio di rotta di Putin con il recupero del ruolo di potenza euroasiatica, la centralizzazione e verticalizzazione del potere e la promozione dei valori considerati permanenti della civiltà russa. Questo saggio a cura di ISPI analizza i vari aspetti storici economici politici di questi passaggi cruciali fornendo una mappa fondamentale per comprendere le complesse dinamiche di un attore di primaria importanza nell'ordine mondiale degli ultimi decenni.

La Rusia post-soviética y su derecho contra el fondo de las tres Rusias sucesivas anteriores

Guillermo Floris Margadant S.,2002

Le trasformazioni della Russia putiniana Autori Vari,2025-01-17T12:12:00+01:00 Il volume esplora l'evoluzione della società e del potere in Russia dopo l'aggressione all'Ucraina e offre un'analisi della complessa interazione tra apparati dello stato, opposizione e società civile. I saggi analizzano la deriva totalitaria del regime putiniano studiandone le istituzioni e la relazione tra stato e società evidenziando come tendenze demografiche, rifugiati ucraini, politiche nataliste e migratorie abbiano ridefinito gli equilibri sociali del paese. Inoltre pongono l'attenzione sulla società civile russa e sulle sfide che oppositori, artisti, accademici, minoranze e difensori dei diritti umani affrontano sia in un contesto sempre più repressivo in patria sia nell'emigrazione.

Moldova Post-sovietică : Un Ținut de Hotar În Tranziție Charles King,1997 Since its declaration of independence on 27 August 1991 the Republic of Moldova has confronted many of the challenges facing other ex-Soviet republics: economic decline, political turmoil, inter-ethnic discord and an uncertain relationship with the Russian Federation. Moldova's history though places it in a unique position among the post-Soviet states. Composed largely of lands annexed from Romania in 1940, Moldova is the only former Soviet republic that remains the potential object of territorial dispute. Moreover, the notion of a distinct Moldovan political and cultural identity cultivated in the Communist period to buttress the Soviet territorial annexation has remained a divisive issue among political groups within the country as well as between Moldova and its Romanian motherland. Focusing on political developments from 1991 through 1994, this book examines the myriad of obstacles faced by Moldovan policy makers in their attempt to construct an independent state in the post-Soviet era. Among the topics addressed are the debate over national identity, the developing party system, ethnic relations and territorial separatism, and economic reform. The author, Charles King, is the Ion Raicu professor of Romanian studies at Georgetown University in Washington D.C. One of the few researchers in the West working on post-Soviet Moldova, his studies have appeared in such prestigious journals as The World Today, Slavic Review, International Affairs and Romanian Civilization.
