The Secret War Between Downloading and Uploading

Peter Lunenfeld, 2011-04-22 As we hurtle into the twenty first century will we be passive downloaders of content or active uploaders of meaning The computer writes Peter Lunenfeld is the twenty first century's culture machine It is a dream device serving as the mode of production the means of distribution and the site of reception We haven't quite achieved the flying cars and robot butlers of futurist fantasies but we do have a machine that can function as a typewriter and a printing press a paintbrush and a gallery a piano and a radio the mail as well as the mail carrier But warns Lunenfeld we should temper our celebration with caution we are engaged in a secret war between downloading and uploading between passive consumption and active creation and the outcome will shape our collective futures In The Secret War Between Downloading and Uploading Lunenfeld makes his case for using digital technologies to shift us from a consumption to a production model He describes television as the the high fructose corn syrup of the imagination and worries that it can cause cultural diabetes prescribes mindful downloading meaningful uploading and info triage as cures and offers tips for crafting bespoke futures in what he terms the era of Web 2.0 interconnectivity to the nth power He also offers a stand alone genealogy of digital visionaries distilling a history of the culture machine that runs from the Patriarchs Vannevar Bush's WWII generation to the Hustlers Bill Gates and Steve Jobs to the Searchers Larry Page and Sergey Brin of Google fame After half a century of television conditioned consumption downloading Lunenfeld tells us we now find ourselves with a vast new infrastructure for uploading We simply need to find the will to make the best of it Druck, 1968
