The Place of Value in a World of Facts Wolfgang Köhler, 1976 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1969 The place of value in a world of facts Wolfgang Koehler, 1938 The Place of Value in a World of Facts Wolfgang KOEHLER (Psychologist.), 1938 Vladimir Solovyev and Max Scheler: Attempt at a Comparative Interpretation Helmut Dahm, 2012-12-06 This comparative study of the works of Vladimir Solovyev and Max Scheler explores some of the areas in which their thoughts seem to bear a direct relation to one another The author shows however that such a correlation is not based on any factual influence of the earlier Russian on the later philosophy of Scheler The similarities in their spiritual and philosophical development are significant as the author demonstrates in his chapter on systematic philosophy This comparison is not just of historical interest It is meant to contribute to a better understanding between the East and the West The author provides a basis for future discussions by establishing a common area of inquiry and by demonstrating a convergence of viewpoints already in regard to these problems The author also discusses the potential role of the ideas of Solovyev and Scheler in the formation of a consciousness which he sees now emerging in the Soviet Union a consciousness critical of any misrepresentation both of non Marxist Russian philosophy as well as of Western philosophy in general In regard to the translation itself three things should be mentioned First of all the distinction between the important German words Sein and Seiendes is often difficult to preserve in translation Unless otherwise noted all references to being refer to Seiendes Second the abbreviations of the works of Solovyev and Scheler used in the footnotes are clarified in the summary of the works of these authors found on page 31 Off below Werte und Tatsachen (The place of value in a world of facts, dt.) Übers Wolfgang Köhler, Mira Koffka, Ottilie C. Selbach, 1968 Analytic Philosophy and Phenomenology H.A. Durfee, 2012-12-06 This is the second volume in the series of American University Publications in Philosophy It like the first volume moves significantly beyond what other books have done before it The first volume's originality lay in its bringing together essays that explored important new directions in the explanation of behavior language and religion The originality of the present volume lies in its collecting for the first time in book form essays at the interface between analytic philosophy and phenomenology In this volume there are essays about a number of the most seminally influential philosophers among both the analysts and the phenomenologists Barry L Blose for the editors of American University Publications in Philosophy EDITOR'S PREFACE Philosophy inevitably creates divisions and this anthology deals with what is perhaps the central division in twentieth century Western philosophy The collection originally the foundation for a seminar in comparative philosophy which I offered at The American University in 1971 and 1974 was sufficiently suggestive to students of both traditions to lead me to initiate its publication The future development of Western philosophy is far from clear but I am convinced that it will inevitably involve a more open conversation between phenomenologists and analytic philosophers between the current dominant orientations among both European and Anglo Saxon philosophers This volume of essays is offered as an attempt to stimulate that conversation Proceedings of the International Congress of Education of the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, July 25-28, 1893 International Congress of Education, 1895
