Africa at the Beginning of the Twenty-first Century P. Godfrey Okoth, 2000 In an attempt to take stock of African affairs this collection of essays addresses the most critical themes and pressing issues facing the continent at the outset of the new century The perspective is broad the approach generally interdisciplinary and the subjects wide ranging and controversial The work is broadly structured into three sections socio cultural transformation governance and democratisation and the global dimension With the focus firmly on the future amongst questions raised are post industrialism and knowledge production the recreation of Africa through language the economic and cultural impact of AIDS prospects for conflict resolution Africa s place in the world dialogue in the new century and the potential role of the mass media

Ethnobotany of the Himalayas Ripu M. Kunwar, Hassan Sher, Rainer W. Bussmann, 2021-07-29 Research in recent years has increasingly shifted away from purely academic research and into applied aspects of the discipline including climate change research conservation and sustainable development It has by now widely been recognized that traditional knowledge is always in flux and adapting to a quickly changing environment Trends of globalization especially the globalization of plant markets have greatly influenced how plant resources are managed nowadays While ethnobotanical studies are now available from many regions of the world no comprehensive encyclopedic series focusing on the worlds mountain regions is available in the market Scholars in plant sciences worldwide will be interested in this website and its dynamic content The field and thus the market of ethnobotany and ethnopharmacology has grown considerably in recent years Student interest is on the rise attendance at professional conferences has grown steadily and the number of professionals calling themselves ethnobotanists has increased significantly the various societies like the Society for Economic Botany the International Society of Ethnopharmacology the Society of Ethnobiology and the International Society for Ethnobiology currently have thousands of members Growth has been most robust in BRIC countries This new MRW on Ethnobotany of the Himalayas takes advantage of the increasing international interest and scholarship in the field of mountain research It includes the best and latest research on a full range of descriptive methodological theoretical and applied research on the most important plants in the Himalayas Each contribution is scientifically rigorous and contributes to the overall field of study Ethnobotany of Northern Africa and Levant Rainer W. Bussmann, Mostafa Elachouri, Zaal Kikvidze, 2024-11-15 Research in recent years has increasingly shifted away from purely academic research and into applied aspects of the discipline including climate change research conservation and sustainable development It has by now widely been recognized that traditional knowledge is always in flux and adapting to a quickly changing environment Trends of globalization especially the globalization of plant markets have greatly influenced how plant resources are managed nowadays While ethnobotanical studies are now available from many regions of the world no comprehensive encyclopedic series focusing on the worlds mountain regions is available in the market Scholars in plant sciences worldwide will be interested in this dynamic content The field and thus the market of ethnobotany and ethnopharmacology has grown considerably in recent years Student interest is on the rise attendance at professional conferences has grown steadily and the number of professionals calling themselves ethnobotanists has increased significantly Various societies of such professionals include the Society for Economic Botany the International Society of Ethnopharmacology the Society of Ethnobiology the International Society for Ethnobiology and many regional and national societies in the field that currently have thousands of members Growth has been most robust in BRIC countries The objective of this new MRW on Ethnobotany of Mountain Regions is to take advantage of the increasing international interest and scholarship in the field of mountain research We anticipate including the best and latest research on a full range of descriptive methodological theoretical and applied research on the most important plants for each region Each contribution will be scientifically rigorous and contribute to the overall field of study

Business Strategies for Economies in Transition Petr G. Chadraha, Reiner Springer, 2020-10-27 The book of readings Business Strategies for Economies in Transition is a collection of papers describing various business issues as they occurred during the economic transitions in Central and Eastern European countries The book's sections are organized along the typical academic business disciplines Marketing Management Advertising Finance and Banking and Human Resource Management This organization allows professors from various disciplines to focus on articles within the area of their specific interest The Maculan case is a multifaceted exercise The scope is very broad covering topics such as management multi cultural environment changing regulations and corporate growth to name a few The accompanying Teaching Note gives some classroom guidance on how to approach this case However educators may find other issues in this case worth discussing with students While the readings are from CEE countries we feel that much of the material can and should be used when looking at other economies be they in transition or in the process of economic development There are many countries that are in one of these two stages Many of the problems addressed in this book are relevant to developing economies Any major change in the economic system be that transition or development impacts people As such the response of the population will directly influence the chance of a successful transformation
