Rubyfruit Jungle A Novel About Being Different And Loving It:

Women's Fiction 1945-2005 Deborah Philips, 2007-11-01 Organised around each decade of the post war period this book analyses novels written by and for women from 1945 to the present Each chapter identifies a specific genre in popular fiction for women which marked that period and provides case studies focusing on writers and texts which enjoyed a wide readership Despite their popularity these novels remain largely outside the canon of women's writing and are often unacknowledged by feminist literary criticism However these texts clearly touched a nerve with a largely female readership and so offer a means of charting the changes in ideals of femininity and in the tensions and contradictions in gender identities in the post war period Their analysis offers new insights into the shifting demands aspirations and expectations of what a woman could and should be over the last half century Through her analysis of women's writing and reading Philips sets out to challenge the distinction between popular and literary fiction arguing that neat categories such as popular middle brow and serious fiction need more careful definition Women's Fiction Deborah Philips, 2014-06-19 Now in its second edition and with new chapters covering such texts as Elizabeth Gilbert's Eat Pray Love and yummy mummy novels such as Allison Pearson's I Don't Know How She Does It this is a wide ranging survey of popular women's fiction from 1945 to the present Examining key trends in popular writing for women in each decade Women's Fiction offers case study readings of major British and American writers Through these readings the book explores how popular texts often neglected by feminist literary criticism have charted the shifting demands aspirations and expectations of women in the 20th and 21st centuries

This Queer Angel Elaine Chambers, 2019-03-07 A revealing memoir laying open the cruel truth behind the longstanding ban on LGBT personnel serving openly in H M Forces Discover the human cost of being deemed a criminal in the institutions protecting fellow citizens hard won freedoms The first book covering recent military history written from a lesbian perspective The inside story of the long heroic battle to overturn homophobia in the British Armed Forces Inspiring Peter Tatchell A richly textured and deeply human tour de force Chambers is a deft storyteller who movingly chronicles her battle to live authentically Unputdownable Dr Emma Vickers Senior Lecturer in History Liverpool John Moores University

Sororophobia Helena Michie, 1992-05-28 This book looks at how differences among women have been textually represented at a variety of historical moments and in a variety of cultural contexts including Victorian mainstream fiction African American mulatto novels late twentieth century lesbian communities and contemporary country music Sororophobia designates the complex and shifting relations between women's attempts to identify with other women and their often simultaneous desire to establish and retain difference Michie argues for the centrality to feminism of a paradigm that moves beyond celebrations of identity and sisterhood to a more nuanced notion of women's relations with other women which may include such uncomfortable concepts as envy jealousy and competition as well as more institutionalized ideas of difference such as race and class Chapters on literature are interspersed by inter chapters on the choreography of sameness and difference among women in popular culture Subversive Intent Susan Rubin Suleiman, 1990 With this important new book Susan Suleiman lays the foundation for a postmodern feminist poetics and theory of the avant garde She shows how the figure of Woman as fantasy myth or metaphor has functioned in the work of male avant garde writers and artists of this century Focusing also on women's avant garde artistic practices Suleiman demonstrates how to read difficult modern works in a way that reveals their political as well as their aesthetic impact Suleiman directly addresses the subversive intent of avant garde movements from Surrealism to postmodernism Through her detailed readings of provocatively transgressive works by Andr Breton Georges Bataille Roland Barthes Alain Robbe Grillet Marcel Duchamp Max Ernst and others Suleiman demonstrates the central role of the female body in the male erotic imagination and illuminates the extent to which masculinist assumptions have influenced modern art and theory By examining the work of contemporary women avantgarde artists and theorists including Hélène Cixous Marguerite Duras Monique Wittig Luce Irigaray Angela Carter Jeanette Winterson Leonora Carrington Barbara Kruger Jenny Holzer and Cindy Sherman Suleiman shows the political power of feminist critiques of patriarchal ideology and especially emphasizes the power of feminist humor and parody Central to Suleiman's revisionary theory of the avant garde is the figure of the playful laughing mother True to the radically irreverent spirit of the historical avant gardes and their postmodernist successors Suleiman's laughing mother embodies the need for a link between symbolic innovation and political and social change Contemporary Women's Writing Maroula Joannou, 2000 This wide ranging study provides a historically grounded account of women's fiction in the 1960s and the 1970s relating changes in the social structure of Britain and the United States to the literary representations of women's experience Maroula Joannou recounts a time of innovation hope and change in the history of literature and the history of women She analyzes the literary impact of the women's movement in Britain and the Civil Rights Movement in the United States on books as diverse as Angela Carter's modern fairy tales and Ursula Le Guin's science fiction Topics include femininity sexuality working class women's writing motherhood continuities and change in the literary tradition the feminist confessional novel experiments in science and detective fiction narratives engaging with the end of the British Empire and black women's writing in the United States This contribution to literary history provides readings of A S Byatt Pat Barker Anita Brookner Margaret Drabble Doris Lessing Erica Jong Toni Morrison Sylvia Plath Marge Piercy Jean Rhys Joanna Russ Alice Walker Fay Weldon and others Masterplots II. Frank Northen Magill, 1995 Contains 536 essays that examine the most important books of fiction and nonfiction authored by women Spare Rib, 1978 The Female Body in Western Culture Susan Rubin Suleiman, 1986 The female body has occupied a central place in the Western imagination its images pervading poetry and story mythology and religious doctrine the visual arts and scientific treatises It has inspired both attraction and fear been perceived as beautiful and unclean alluring and dangerous a source of pleasure and nurturing but also a source of evil and destruction In The Female Body in Western Culture twenty three internationally noted scholars and critics in specially commissioned essays explore these representations and their consequences for contemporary art and culture Ranging from Genesis to Gertrude Stein and Angela Carter from ancient Greek ritual to the Victorian sleeping cure from images of the Madonna to modern film and Surrealist art the essays cover a wide spectrum of approaches and subject matter They all converge however around questions of power and powerlessness voice and silence subjecthood and objectification And they point the way to the new possibilities and displacements of traditional male female oppositions Androgyny in a new key This book demonstrates that a blurring of gender boundaries does not have to deny difference

The Publishers Weekly, 2004 California Lawyer, 1983 Deneuve, 1991 Feminism and the Politics of Literary Reputation Charlotte Templin, 1995 Soon after its publication in 1973 Fear of Flying brought Erica Jong immense popular success and media fame Alternately pegged sassy and vulgar Jong's novel embraced the politics of the women's liberation movement and challenged the definition of female sexuality Yet today more than twenty years and several books later literary reputation continues for the most part to elude Jong Typecast by her adversaries as a media seeking sensationalist Erica Jong has been unfairly side stepped by academia Charlotte Templin contends In this carefully researched study augmented by personal interviews with Jong Templin assembles and analyzes the medley of responses to Jong's books by reviewers critics writers academics and the media by liberals conservatives and feminists She examines the diverse opinions on the merit and relevance to contemporary life of Fear of Flying the invocation of a high culture low culture dichotomy to discredit How to Save Your Own Life the anatomy of literary success with Fanny Jong's reception in a postfeminist age and the trivialization of Jong's works that is inevitable with mass media exposure Templin also shows how antagonistic reviewers tend to identify Jong with her fictitious characters a practice more common when the author is a woman and judge her to be guilty of the sin of not being a proper woman In turn she shows how reviewers reveal something of their own values and ideological biases in their critiques and how literary reputations are built destroyed and altered over time The first book to make a detailed examination of the reputation of a woman writer Feminism and the Politics of Literary Reputation provides an excellent case study for the literary reception of women writers within a broad cultural context Templin's analysis offers valuable insight into the reception of women writers especially commercially successful women writers and dramatically illustrates the relation of literary reputation to popular appeal and cultural mores

The Bisexual Imaginary Bi Academic Intervention, 1997 This insightful and lively book examines the consumption of the lesbian idols kd lang and Martina Navratilova by their many lesbian fans in contemporary society through an analysis of lesbian recognition identification and desire Allen suggests that the star fan relationship existing between these stars and their fans challenges a heterosexual notion of sex as determining gender because of the function of the masculine woman as a powerful signifier of lesbian identity Thus the way in which Martina and kd embody an ongoing and lived out lesbian identity makes representations of them in the mainstream media an unprecedented phenomenon which undercuts the primacy of heterosexual gender relations This is contrasted with the recent media popularization of lesbian chic which is viewed rather as a homophobic recuperation of lesbians under the visual codes of conventional femininity The Lesbian Idol presents a multitextual and highly critical analysis of lesbian fans personal accounts of their adoration for their idols the ways in which Martina and kd have been represented in the mainstream media and the key discourses through which lesbian identity and culture have recently been theorized such as psychoanalysis queer theory and feminism Ms. Magazine Gloria Steinem, Robin Morgan, Joanne Edgar, Patricia Theresa Carbine, Nina Finkelstein, Letty Cottin Pogrebin, 1984 New Our Right to Love Ginny Vida, 1996-05-28 Featuring interviews with Martina Navratilova Melissa Etheridge and others this work captures the lesbian experience from love and sexuality to legal issues and arts It discusses subjects such as political activism lesbian literature and raising children Outlook, 1992 American Women Writers Taryn Benbow-Pfalzgraf, 2000 These volumes present essays offering critical biographical and bibliographical information on each writer

Contemporary Lesbian Writers of the United States Sandra Pollack, Denise Knight, 1993-10-11 The first comprehensive biographical critical and bibliographical source on lesbian writers this reference book features essays on 100 contemporary writers of poetry fiction and drama in the United States Many had written as self identified lesbians at some point during the 1970 1992 period of coverage Each essay comprises a biography with personal history often derived from interviews an analysis of major works and themes an overview of the critical reception and bibliographies of primary works and of critical studies and reviews The volume introduction by Tucker P Farley situates contemporary lesbian literature in its historical and political contexts Appendices list publishers of lesbian writers and periodicals featuring lesbian writing An extensive bibliography provides nonfiction resources focusing on lesbian issues including works in psychology sexuality parenting health history and theory as well as literature A companion to Contemporary Gay American Novelists A Bio Bibliographical Critical Sourcebook edited by Emmanuel S Nelson Greenwood Press 1993 this work will be an important addition to college and university libraries supporting gay and lesbian and women s studies programs and literary curricula incorporating this material It will also be a valuable resource for public and school libraries and collections and specialists in American literature providing information and analysis for understanding the expanding literary canon The Reading Group Book David Laskin, Holly Hughes, 1995-02 Reading groups have skyrocketed in popularity and now there s a complete guide to starting and sustaining a reading group with annotated lists of 250 titles for provocative discussion Filled with funny and insightful stories from book group members independent booksellers and even a sociologist this guide will inspire the start up of new groups
