Cultivating Adolescent Literacy Gregory Berry, 2017-10-04 This book offers middle and high school teachers useful suggestions and strategies for cultivating literacy in their classrooms focusing primarily on the key skills of reading and writing. It discusses the nature of standards based education and emphasizes the power and importance of good literature in the ELA curriculum. Included are detailed approaches to reading and writing with simple strategies for teaching close reading of complex text as well as textual evidence and elaboration. A variety of sample performance tasks are included for commonly taught works of American and world literature as well as a variety of strategies to strengthen students' reading and writing skills needed for success in college and the workplace. This book is a practical handbook for teachers who can easily find appropriate strategies to use in their classrooms and begin implementing them right away. It is a useful collection of tips with suggestions and instructions for implementing effective and engaging literacy strategies and performance tasks.

The Oxford Handbook of Deaf Studies in Literacy Susan R. Easterbrooks, Hannah M. Dostal, 2020-11-02 The Oxford Handbook of Deaf Studies in Literacy brings together state of the art research on literacy learning among deaf and hard of hearing learners. With contributions from experts in the field, this volume covers topics such as the importance of language and cognition, phonological or orthographic awareness, morphosyntactic and vocabulary understanding, reading comprehension, and classroom engagement. Written language and learning among challenged populations. Avoiding sweeping generalizations about DHH readers that overlook varied experiences, this volume takes a nuanced approach, providing readers with the research to help DHH students gain competence in reading comprehension. Resources in Education
