International Sports Betting Jean-Patrick Villeneuve, Martial Pasquier, 2018-10-09 Sports betting has become a truly global phenomenon facilitated by new communication technologies. As a result, the development of deviances from match fixing to money laundering has accelerated. This new reality has numerous implications for both the regulation of this billion dollar industry and the very integrity of sport. Written by an international team of academic researchers and industry professionals, International Sports Betting explores the central concepts of integrity and deviance, governance and policy, as well as perennial issues linked to the gambling sector such as regulatory responsibilities and the fight against gambling addiction. Unlike other treatments of the gambling industry, the book offers a multi-disciplinary sociological and managerial critique that goes beyond a traditional focus on law and regulation. This is fascinating reading for any student, researcher or practitioner working in the areas of sport business, international business, international regulation, policy studies or gambling studies.

Routledge Handbook of Sport Communication Paul M. Including contributions from leading sport communication scholars and professionals from around the world, the book is structured around four key themes: theoretical and conceptual foundations, mediated aspects of sport communication, sociological aspects, and organizational, technological and managerial aspects. This new edition includes expanded coverage of important and emerging topics within sport communication, including cross-cultural communication, rhetoric in sport, storytelling, the business of sports, broadcasting, athlete activism, and communication within sports teams. Taking stock of current research, new ideas and key issues, this book is an essential reference for any advanced student, researcher or practitioner with an interest in sport communication, sport business, sport management, sport marketing, communication theory, journalism or media studies.
