The Handbook of Media Education Research Divina Frau-Meigs, Sirkku Kotilainen, Manisha Pathak-Shelat, Michael Hoechsmann, Stuart R. Poyntz, 2020-09-23 Over the past forty years media education research has emerged as a historical epistemological and practical field of study. Shifts in the field along with radical transformations in media technologies, aesthetic forms, ownership models, and audience participation practices have driven the application of new concepts and theories across a range of both school and non-school settings. The Handbook on Media Education Research is a unique exploration of the complex set of practices, theories, and tools of media research. Featuring contributions from a diverse range of internationally recognized experts and practitioners, this timely volume discusses recent developments in the field in the context of related scholarship, public policy, formal and non-formal teaching and learning, and DIY and community practice. Offering a truly global perspective, the Handbook focuses on empirical work from Media and Information Literacy (MIL) practitioners from around the world. The book's five parts explore global youth cultures and the media, trans-media learning, media literacy, and scientific controversies; varying national approaches to media research; media education policies; and much more. A ground-breaking resource on the concepts and theories of media research, this important book provides a diversity of views and experiences relevant to media literacy education research. Features contributions from experts from a wide range of countries including South Africa, Finland, India, Italy, Brazil, and many more. Examines the history and future of media education in various international contexts. Discusses the development and current state of media literacy education institutions and policies. Addresses important contemporary issues such as social media use, datafication, digital privacy rights, and divides and global cultural practices. The Handbook of Media Education Research is an invaluable guide for researchers in the field, undergraduate and graduate students in media studies, policy makers, and MIL practitioners.

Perspectives on American Dance Jennifer Atkins, Sally R. Sommer, Tricia Henry Young, 2020-02-25 Dancing embodies cultural history and beliefs, and each dance carries with it features of the place where it originated. Influenced by different social, political, and environmental circumstances, dances change and adapt. American dance evolved in large part through combinations of multiple styles and forms that arrived with each new group of immigrants. Perspectives on American Dance is the first anthology in over twenty-five years to focus exclusively on American dance practices across a wide span of American culture. This volume and its companion show how social experience, courtship, sexualities, and other aspects of life in America are translated through dancing into spatial patterns, gestures, and partner relationships. This volume of Perspectives on American Dance features essays by a young generation of authors who write with familiarity about their own era, exploring new parameters of identity and evaluating a wide variety of movement practices being performed in spaces beyond traditional proscenium stages. Topics include dorky dancing on YouTube, same-sex competitors on the TV show So You Think You Can Dance, racial politics in NFL touchdown dances, the commercialization of flash mobs, the connections between striptease and corporate branding how 9 11 affected dance the criminalization of New York City club dancing and the joyous ironies of hipster dance This volume emphasizes how dancing is becoming more social and interactive as technology opens up new ways to create and distribute dance The accessible essays use a combination of movement analysis thematic interpretation and historical context to convey the vitality and variety of American dance They offer new insights on American dance practices while simultaneously illustrating how dancing functions as an essential template for American culture and identity Contributors Jennifer Atkins Jessica Berson J Ellen Gainor Patsy Gay Ansley Jones Kate Mattingly Hannah Schwadron Sally Sommer Ph D Ina Sotirova Dawn Springer Michelle T Summers Latika L Young Tricia Henry Young Film Review ,2002
