Read the short passage and answer the questions.

The Dog and the Shadow

It happened that a Dog had got a piece of meat and was carrying it home in his mouth to eat it in peace. Now on his way home, he had to cross a plank lying across a running brook. As he crossed, he looked down and saw his own shadow reflected in the water beneath. Thinking it was another dog with another piece of meat, he made up his mind to have that also. So he made a snap at the shadow in the water, but as he opened his mouth the piece of meat fell out, dropped into the water and was never seen more.

1. What animal was crossing a board?

2. What did the dog have in his mouth?

3. What did the dog see in the running brook?

4. What is the moral of the story?

Dyslexia and

Literacy

Erland Hjelmquist, Curt von Euler, 2002-11-08

Reading and writing skills were once confined to only a few people Today a person facing problems with acquiring literacy skills will run the risk of being excluded from fully participating in society New information tends to imply even more demands on mastering reading and writing than ever before Dyslexia was used early as a descriptive term for characterising problems of reading and writing Since the introduction of the term research has made impressive progress and interdisciplinary fields have been created including social studies behavioural studies biology education and remediation Above all dyslexia research has taken a step from being descriptive to suggesting theoretical models for explaining the empirical phenomena observed This book presents contributions from some of the world leading researchers on these issues in honour of one of the main scholars in the field Professor Ingvar Lundberg
