MLB Playoffs Workout Plan America:

The Cooperstown Symposium on Baseball and American Culture, 2000 William M. Simons, 2015-10-02 This is an anthology of 19 papers that were presented at the Twelfth Cooperstown Symposium on Baseball and American Culture held June 7-9, 2000 and co-sponsored by the State University of New York at Oneonta and the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum. Capped by Roger Kahn's essay on the rise and fall of great baseball prose, this Symposium plumbed such topics as baseball in the classroom, the national pastime and American Christianity, corporate encroachment and the difficult course pursued by a Negro League team owner who also happened to be white and female. These essays divided into sections titled Baseball and Culture, Baseball as History, The Business of Baseball and Race, Gender and Ethnicity in the National Pastime, cut through the quick and easy judgments of the media and offer instead the longer, more informed view of scholars and researchers.

The All-American Girls Professional Baseball League Record Book W.C. Madden, 2015-08-13 For a dozen years during the 1940s and 1950s more than 600 women played professional baseball in the All-American Girls Professional Baseball League. Some of these women compiled some eye-popping statistics unequaled by their male counterparts: Sophie Kurys swiped 200 bases in one season; Joanne Winter hurled 63 consecutive scoreless innings; pitcher Jean Faut sported a .910 winning percentage one season. Few know that Joanne Weaver was the last professional baseball player to hit 400 in a season, 429 in 1954. This reference book contains the hitting, fielding and pitching records of all women who played in the AAGPBL during its 12-year history. The book also contains all of the team and individual playoff records of the league compiled for the first time. Included herein are rosters of the all-star teams as well as a listing of all pitching and batting champions. A brief history of the league is recounted. Complementing the statistics are photos of the league championship teams and key players.

The American League in Transition, 1965-1975 Paul Hensler, 2012-12-18 In the years following the decline of the New York Yankees dynasty that ended in 1964, three American League teams endeavored to stake their claim to the Junior Circuit's crown. From 1965 to 1975 the Minnesota Twins, Baltimore Orioles and Oakland Athletics emerged as the most significant AL clubs, but this trio achieved varying degrees of success. Through the prism of these three teams, this book examines facets of their dynastic aspirations, the way in which key personnel were assembled into a cohesive roster, the glory that was won by the clubs and the factors leading to their decline. Drawing on a rich variety of primary and secondary sources, the story is told of vital players from Latin America who made their way to Minnesota, the select few who ventured from the Orioles training facility in Thomasville, Georgia to Baltimore, and the collegiate stars selected in the early years of the newly created amateur draft who went on to help forge a winning combination in Oakland.
