

Settlers Law

Thomas Lewin, Frederick Albert Lewin

Settlers Law:

Migration, Settlement and Belonging in Europe, 1500-1930s Steven King, Anne Winter, 2013-11-01 The issues around settlement belonging and poor relief have for too long been understood largely from the perspective of England and Wales This volume offers a pan European survey that encompasses Switzerland Prussia Belgium the Netherlands and Britain It explores how the conception of belonging changed over time and space from the 1500s onwards how communities dealt with the welfare expectations of an increasingly mobile population that migrated both within and between states the welfare rights that were attached to those who belonged and how ordinary people secured access to welfare resources What emerged was a sophisticated European settlement system which on the one hand structured itself to limit the claims of the poor and yet on the other was peculiarly sensitive to their demands and negotiations
