Seven Times Freed:

The Dao of World Politics L. H. M. Ling, 2013-10-30 This book draws on Daoist yin yang dialectics to move world politics from the current stasis of hegemony hierarchy and violence to a more balanced engagement with parity fluidity and ethics. The author theorizes that we may develop a richer more representative approach towards sustainable and democratic governance by offering a non Western alternative to hegemonic debates in IR. The book presents the story of world politics by integrating folk tales and popular culture with policy analysis. It does not exclude current models of liberal internationalism but rather brackets them for another day another purpose. The deconstruction of IR as a singular unifying school of thought through the lens of a non Westphalian analytic shows a unique perspective on the forces that drive and shape world politics. This book suggests new ways to articulate and act so that global politics is more inclusive and less coercive. Only then the book claims could IR realize what the dao has always stood for: a world of compassion and care. The Dao of World Politics bridges the humanities and social sciences and will be of interest to scholars and students of the global international as well as policymakers and activists of the local domestic.

The Bride Set Free Scharlotte Celestine, 2017-03-27 This book begins with a vision of a heavenly proposal. In the vision Jesus was standing before the ones he had come to save. His nail scarred hands were spread open wide in invitation and he asked: Will you be mine? Will you let me into your heart to love and provide for you? Will you surrender to me and be my bride? I saw his beloved kneeling at his feet in complete surrender and asking him to be their king and he said to them: I must go away to make a place for you in my mansion but I will return for my bride soon. I am not leaving you alone but I give to you the Holy Spirit as a wedding planner to prepare my bride. He will wash you pure with my word, clothe you in robes of righteousness and teach you the ways of my kingdom so you can come boldly before my throne on our wedding day. Jesus's proposal was awesome. He paid the full price for his bride with his own life. As I compare this beautiful vision to what I see in the world today, my heart is gripped with an urgency to inspire people to get ready because we don't know the hour of his return. Through his Word we know the day is well advanced and that the hour certainly draws nearer. As King Solomon prayed for wisdom and asked God to teach him how to come in and go out, we must have the same prayer: Learning to come into God's presence as we learn from him and as we build our relationship and receive boldness to go out into the harvest fully representing Jesus as ambassadors to share testimony of him.
