Sex and Violence in the Canadian Novel John Moss, 1977      The Canadian Novel John Moss, 1983-02 A collection of essays about contemporary Canadian novels by Margaret Atwood Robertson Davies Margaret Laurence Alice Munro Mordechai Richler Rudy Wiebe as edited by professor of English at the University of Ottawa John Moss      Reisen und Leben Stephanie Alvino, 1996      Violence and the Female Imagination Paula Ruth Gilbert, 2006-03-31 In the past twenty years Quebec women writers including Aline Chamberland Claire D Suzanne Jacob and H l ne Rioux have created female characters who are fascinated with bold sexual actions and language cruelty and violence at times culminating in infanticide and serial killing Paula Ruth Gilbert argues that these Quebec feminist writers are re framing gender Violence and the Female Imagination explores whether these imagined women are striking out at an external other or harming themselves through acts of self destruction and depression Gilbert examines the degree to which women are imitating men in the outward direction of their anger and hostility and suggests that such tough women may be mocking men in their macho exploits of sexuality and violence She illustrates the ways in which Quebec female authors are feminizing violence or re envisioning gender in North American culture Gilbert bridges methodological gaps and integrates history sociology literary theory feminist theory and other disciplinary approaches to provide a framework for the discussion of important ethical and aesthetic questions      Sexing the Maple Richard Cavell, Peter Dickinson, 2006-09-14 Sexing the Maple is a unique sourcebook designed to raise issues of nationalism and sexuality in Canada through a rich and diverse selection of fiction poetry criticism and history Structured so as to provide an interactive study of these issues the collection considers topics as wide ranging as First Nations sexuality censorship assisted reproduction and religion Literary works by Alice Munro Jane Rule Timothy Findley Leonard Cohen Irving Layton Lynn Crosbie Michael Turner and many others are juxtaposed with criticism and historical documents many of which were previously out of print or unavailable Selections include Marshall McLuhan s 1967 article The Future of Sex and excerpts from Stan Persky and John Dixon s Kiddie Porn SKY Lee s Disappearing Moon Cafe and Margaret Atwood s A Handmaid s Tale      Women in Exile and Alienation Kaptan Singh, 2016-06-22 Since World War II exile and alienation have become two of the most prominent themes in world literature Canadian and Indian literatures are no exception Modern human civilisation is passing through a terrible ordeal following on from the catastrophic consequences of two world wars and many people have been overwhelmed and overawed by the growth of science technology and urbanisation Alienation a feeling of not belonging has filled the life of modern man with uncertainties and disappointments obstructions and frustrations Indian and Canadian literatures are currently two of the most acclaimed forms of global literature with major themes including a search for identity a struggle for survival and self and social isolation and it is not surprising that female writers are major voices in both Indian and Canadian literature There is a heavy imbalance of power between two sexes in both cultures where men are considered to be domineering and the centre of the family while women are regarded as subordinate to men Women's suppression compels them to live in their self-exiled and alienated world The works of Margaret Laurence and Anita Desai depict heart-rending facts and bitter realities which women have to face in an emotionless modern society Since the patriarchal structure is prevalent in India and Canada women are categorised as second-rate citizens and are treated as liabilities by their families due to a lack of financial power In the absence of any economic social emotional and financial support they also consider themselves inferior to men Time and again they revolt against the mechanical and merciless treatment of their family and society and sometimes they choose self-exile as a safeguard against the callous and selfish treatment of their family members Their inner desire to revolt against an oppressive society and the prevailing cultural norm only increases their isolation In their works Laurence and Desai have unveiled the tortured psyche of sensitive women who are unable to share their feelings with others and are destined to live an emotionally deprived life publishing as well as a piece by George Woodcock on how the arts councils steer the arts There is even a prescription for how to become a famous Canadian poet Find out why Most of the academics who have busied themselves with CanLit have been unsparkling Others like Robin Matthews burn with such a fierce love for tedious old verbiage that their devotion is probably better explain in psychiatric rather than literary terms Or why The English department is usually a heap of deadwood in the middle of a university Or It is only in the isolation of English Canada that Robertson Davies can preserve his sense of comfortable superiority The Bumper Book comes out swinging at the sacred cows of CanLit
