West's extraordinary career as academic public intellectual and activist. In his essays, articles, books, and interviews, West emerges as America's social conscience, urging attention to complicated issues of racial and economic justice, sexuality, and gender history and politics. This collection represents the best work of an always compelling, often controversial, and absolutely essential philosopher of the modern American experience. CommonQuest, 1996 African Americans in the Media Today [2 volumes] Sam Riley, 2007-05-30. This two-volume biographical encyclopedia chronicles the success stories and considerable strides made by over 240 African American media figures from newspapers, magazines, radio, television, and the Internet. Contemporary Black Biography, 2009 Life, Culture, and Education on the Academic Plantation Dierdre Glenn Paul, 2001. Life, Culture, and Education on the Academic Plantation: Womanist Thought and Perspective, a collection of autobiographical essays, employs autobiography as a form of life history. Autobiography has been adopted as a mode in which to make sense of the world and analyze the complex and paradoxical dynamics of race, class, gender, sexual orientation, and other positionalities. This book addresses issues such as race and gender within the academy, motherhood and parenting, Black epistemology, political praxis, and social activism, as well as the education of children of color from urban centers. Women in the United States Joan Nordquist, 1995.
