Sex Power And Pleasure:

Sex, Power and Pleasure Mariana Valverde, 1987 Text lust Body and erotic power Heterosexuality contested ground Lesbianism a country that has no language Bisexuality coping with sexual boundaries Pornography not for men only Imagining desire Pleasure and ethics Women, Sex, Power, And Pleasure Evelyn Resh, CNM/MPH, 2013-03-01 In her new book Women Sex Power Pleasure Evelyn Resh a sexuality counselor and certified nurse midwife takes an innovative approach to helping women create the lives and sex lives they want With a funny and compassionate yet tell it like it is style she looks at the relationship between feeling powerful in life and accessing life's pleasures and their combined effect on sexual desire Resh introduces six essential qualities that women must have to live healthfully stating that when these are out of balance women seem to exist in lives devoid of pleasure self empowerment and sex These markers of emotional well being are Self confidence and self esteem Healthy Habits Spiritual Satisfaction Creativity Self assurance reassurance Compassion and Empathy Once the six traits are laid out Resh devotes the rest of the book to exploring how when one or more of a woman's markers of emotional well being are off kilter their reasons for avoiding sex mount exponentially She looks at some of the most common excuses she's heard over her many years as a sexuality counselor I Feel Nothing It's All He Thinks About I'm Too Busy I'm Too Fat to Have Sex and outlines the specific imbalances that create this void of sexual desire and activity With practical guidance self assessment questions and stories from her practice and personal life Resh explains to modern women how to regain their emotional wellness and live a powerful life that includes a steady relationship with pleasure and sexual satisfaction This book is a must read for all women From housewives to sophisticated urban corporate types from new moms to post menopausal women this book will help any woman who feels estranged from her sexual energy and a sense of empowerment and deprived of pleasure or who views sex as just another thing to tick off her overwhelming to do list

Bisexuality Merl Storr, 1999 Presents the reader with the essential primary texts on bisexuality for the last 100 years Exploring the often controversial concept from a range of perspectives this book places bisexuality in its historical and cultural context Sexology Fernando Bianco, Rubén Hernández Serrano, 1990 Affect Imagery Consciousness Silvan S. Tomkins, PhD, 2008-02-15 brilliant Malcolm Gladwell Author of Blink The writings for which this essay is offered as a Prologue consumed him from the mid 1950s through the end of his life in 1991 Knowing it was his lifework Tomkins conflated life and work reifying the superstition that its completion would equal death and refusing to release for publication long completed material He knew the risks associated with this obsessive neurotic behavior and the results were as bad as predicted The first two volumes of Affect Imagery Consciousness AIC were released in 1962 and 1963 Volume III in 1991 shortly before he succumbed to a particularly virulent strain of small cell lymphoma and Volume IV a year after his death This last book contains Tomkins's understanding of neocortical cognition ideas that are even now exciting but until this current publication of his work as a single supervolume almost nobody has read it The bulk of his audience had died along with the enthusiasm generated by his ideas Bigscience is now more a matter of big machines and unifocal discoveries as the basis for pars pro toto reasoning than big ideas based on the assembly and analysis of all that is known Tomkins ignored nothing from any science past or present that might lead him toward a more certain understanding of the mind Every idea every theory deserved attention if only because significant observations can loiter in blind alleys From the Prologue by Donald L. Nathanson MD Volume 1 of Springer's magisterial new two volume edition of Tomkins's magnum opus comprises The Positive Affects and The Negative Affects Affect Imagery Consciousness Silvan Tomkins, 1962-01-15 Tomkins's magnum opus Affect Imagery Consciousness was published by Springer Publishing Company in four volumes over 30 years When Tomkins began writing the book in the 1950s American psychology was dominated by psychoanalytic and behaviorist theories neither of which placed much importance on the role of basic emotions in everyday human behavior Tomkins challenged the status quo by developing over the span of nearly 2 000 pages a theory of consciousness and motivation that placed emotion at the core of the human experience Because so few psychologists were studying emotion at that time Tomkins drew liberally from other academic disciplines to help formulate his ideas and support his arguments evolutionary biology ethology cybernetics literature philosophy psychoanalysis and neurophysiology among others In the process Tomkins practically invented the field of nonverbal behavior through close observation of emotional expressions in people including his own infant son His work was a brilliantly eccentric pastiche of ideas that adhered to no strict disciplinary or ideological boundaries In time however AIC came to prominence through the research of his disciples notably Paul Ekman and Carroll Izard who went on to become major researchers in the psychology of emotion Today Tomkins's book is influential not just in psychology but in philosophy sociology communication studies even in affective computing Springer Publishing Company is pleased to continue to offer this magisterial work in four volumes

Rape Culture and Religious Studies Rhiannon Graybill, Meredith Minister, Beatrice Lawrence, 2019-04-30 Rape Culture and Religious Studies Critical and Pedagogical Engagements stages a critical engagement between religious texts and the problem of sexual violence Rape and other forms of sexual violence are widespread on college and university campuses they also occur in sacred texts and religious traditions The volume addresses these difficult intersections as they play out in texts traditions and university contexts The volume gathers contributions from religious studies scholars to engage these questions from a variety of institutional contexts and to offer a constructive assessment of religious texts and traditions

Noir Affect Christopher Breu, Elizabeth A. Hatmaker, 2020-06-02 Noir Affect proposes a new understanding of noir as defined by negative affect This new understanding emphasizes that noir is first and foremost an affective disposition rather than a specific cycle of films or novels associated with a given time period or national tradition Instead the essays in Noir Affect trace noir's negativity as it manifests in different national contexts from the United States to Mexico France and Japan and in a range of different media including films novels video games and manga The forms of affect associated with noir are resolutely negative These are narratives centered on loss sadness rage shame guilt regret anxiety humiliation resentment resistance and refusal Moreover noir often asks us to identify with those on the losing end of cultural narratives especially the criminal the lost the compromised the haunted the unlucky the cast aside and the erotically perverse including those whose greatest erotic attachment is to death Drawing on contemporary work in affect theory while also re orienting some of its core assumptions to address the resolutely negative affects narrated by noir Noir Affect is invested in thinking through the material bodily social and political economic impact of the various forms noir affect takes If much affect theory asks us to consider affect as a space of possibility and becoming Noir Affect asks us to consider affect as also a site of repetition dissolution redundancy unmaking and decay It also asks us to consider the way in which the affective dimensions of noir enable the staging of various forms of social antagonism including those associated with racial gendered sexual and economic inequality Featuring an Afterword by the celebrated noir scholar Paula Rabinowitz and essays by an array of leading scholars Noir Affect aims to fundamentally re orient our understanding of noir Contributors Alexander Dunst Sean Grattan Peter Hitchcock Justus Nieland Andrew Pepper Ignacio S nchez Prado Brian Rejack Pamela Thoma Kirin Wachter Grene

After the "Speculative Turn": Realism, Philosophy, and Feminism Katerina Kolozova, Eileen A. Joy, 2016 Recent forms of realism in continental philosophy that are habitually subsumed under the category of speculative realism a denomination referring to rather heterogeneous strands of philosophy bringing together object oriented ontology OOO non standard philosophy or non philosophy the speculative realist ideas of Quentin Meillassoux and Marxism have provided grounds for the much needed critique of culturalism in gender theory and the authority with which post structuralism has dominated feminist theory for decades This publication aims to bring forth some of the feminist debates prompted by the so called speculative turn while demonstrating that there has never been a niche of speculative realist feminism Whereas most of the contributions featured in this collection provide a theoretical approach invoking the necessity of foregrounding new forms of realism for a feminism beyond gender as culture some of the essays tackle OOO only to invite a feminist critical challenge to its paradigm while others refer to some extent to non philosophy or the new materialisms but are not reducible to either of the two We have invited essays from intellectual milieus outside the Anglo Saxon academic center bringing together authors from Serbia Slovenia France Ireland the UK and Canada aiming to promote feminist internationalism rather than a generous act of cultural inclusion

Gender in Film and the Media Elżbieta H. Oleksy, Elżbieta Ostrowska, 2000 Authored by an international team of academics Gender in Film and the Media responds to continuing debates about representation and gender in cinema and other media with a particular concentration on the ways in which they may relate to the Central European context since 1989 The emphasis of these essays on the intersections between social and cultural formations and practices of gender represents an attempt to move beyond the abstractions of the founding texts in this field and to ground theoretical reflection in close textual and contextual analysis This book thus also represents the expansion of cultural exchange between East and West since 1989 which has created new and challenging opportunities to rethink the imaging of gender in national and international frameworks JCT., 1991* The Phobic and the Erotic Brinda Bose, Subhabrata Bhattacharyya, 2007 The first comprehensive assessment of the diverse sexual practices of India transsexual homosexual and heterosexual Lost Subjects, Contested Objects Deborah P. Britzman, 1998-01-01 A study of love and hate in learning and an argument for why educators might begin with consideration of these psychical dynamics when interpreting the conflictive dreams of education
