Serving Science And Society In The New Millenium Compass Series:

Millennial Culture and Communication Pedagogies Andrew Sutherland, Michael G. Strawser, 2018-11-15 This book examines the ways in which faculty and staff at the higher education level teach and communicate with their millennial students and colleagues The contributors address how millennials academic and non academic interests and everyday performances within and outside of higher education influence how faculty and staff communicate with them This book delves into how millennials can become more adaptable in their communication with others in society especially in higher education be it from different generations or cultures that may or may not communicate the way they do The contributors argue that millennial culture should be carefully studied by instructors researchers and administrators to create a better classroom and educational experience and also improve the level of communication among these constituencies

Place-Based Service Learning in Higher Education Shauna Reilly, Mark Neikirk, Samantha Langley-Turnbaugh, 2023-11-20 Place Based Service Learning in Higher Education Building Trust and Opportunities Over Time looks at the intersection of student research and community based learning in a concentrated location over a period of ten years This study examines the use of an urban neighborhood as a place based source for engagement partners and opportunities With a sustained programmatic commitment to the neighborhood Northern Kentucky University sought to build trust over a period of ten years with residents nonprofit agencies serving them and other stakeholders who in turn could generate a steady stream of engagement opportunities valued by the neighborhood and valuable to students learning Analysis found that this commitment indeed built trust with partners and produced mutually beneficial opportunities including lasting relationships impactful work in the community and retention of faculty and students

Cultural Protest in Journalism, Documentary Films and the Arts Daniel H. Mutibwa, 2019-02-13 Cultural Protest in Journalism Documentary Films and the Arts Between Protest and Professionalisation entails a comprehensive account of the history and trajectory of contemporary journalistic documentary film and arts and cultural actors rooted partially or wholly in radical alternative community voluntary participatory and independent movements primarily in Britain and Germany It focuses particularly on the examination of production and organisational contexts of selected case studies some of which date from the countercultural era The book takes a transnational and interdisciplinary approach encompassing a range of theoretical perspectives drawn from the political economy of communication tradition alternative media scholarship journalism studies critical sociological and cultural studies of media industries cultural industries research and critical and social theory in conjunction with extensive ethnographic fieldwork It does so to reveal the obscure nature of media and cultural production and organisation at seventeen media and cultural actors based in Britain and Germany including South Africa and Nigeria A particular focus is placed on how such actors balance competing imperatives of a civic socio political professional artistic and commercial nature as well as various systemic pressures and on how they navigate the resultant ambivalences paradoxes and tensions in
