The Seven Key Elements of Fiction L. Perry Wilbur, 2001      The Seven Basic Plots Christopher Booker, 2004-01-01 This volume provides an analysis of stories plot structures and their psychological meanings attempting to distill all of storytelling down to a few archetypes Drawing on a vast array of examples from Proust to detective stories from the Marquis de Sade to E T the author leads readers through the changes in the nature of storytelling over the past 200 years and why so many stories have lost the plot by losing touch with their underlying archetypal purpose He analyzes why evolution has given us the need to tell stories and illustrates how storytelling has provided a uniquely revealing mirror to mankind s psychological development over the past 5000 years      Digital Storytelling for Brands Bridget Tombleson, Katharina Wolf, 2023-08-05 Digital storytelling for brands has become a non negotiable skill in the 21st century due to the need to connect and communicate with diverse audiences across multiple channels and platforms The ability to understand narrative s is now a prerequisite for many business communication marketing and public relations professionals as well as content creators and journalists This book teaches essential skills in deconstructing the traditional narrative and how to adapt narrative to fit contemporary platforms Co creative methods are emphasised and provide readers with a theoretical underpinning of participatory culture and narrative For the first time ever this book brings together extant arts and humanities based models with business theory It provides learners with a clear understanding of the creative and persuasive form of narrative within a digital context whilst building brand Contemporary case studies highlight challenges faced in the digital world including implications for reputation management considerations associated with mis and disinformation and the crucial role of the collective narrative A key principle guiding this book is the more digital we become the more we crave to feel human and it is this very space where digital storytelling can cut through the digital noise to provide an authentic connection Bridget Tombleson is an academic at Curtin University Perth Western Australia with more than twenty years experience in public relations and the communication industry Katharina Wolf is an Associate Professor at Curtin University in Perth Western Australia and Lead of the Faculty of Business and Law s public relations program      Film Production eBook GURMEET SINGH DANG,      Signature Pedagogies for the Playwriting Classroom Andrew Black, 2025-06-12 Drawing on qualitative research exploring the techniques of playwriting instructors this book outlines signature pedagogies within playwriting instruction for novice writers and how they may be reimaged and reinvigorated Through research gathered in interviews with 11 instructors and surveying their methods syllabi and handouts Andrew Black interrogates key challenges within dramatic writing pedagogy the myth that it along with creativity cannot be taught the lack of clarity about the instructional value of playwriting education for diverse contemporary audiences the tendency to allow the writing product to drive instruction rather than process and the tension between traditional and experimental models of play construction and how this can confound instructional techniques Identifying 3 indispensable and signature pedagogies that are consistently used in the classroom the writing exercise the use of mentor texts and the workshopping of student material this book describes key strategies and practices used by seasoned instructors which bring these pedagogical strategies to life strategies and practices which can support instructors in reimagining their playwriting classrooms An intervention for lorebased pedagogical models that are often out of date and reflect the biases of previous generations Black offers a starting point for instructors developing their inclusive lesson plans offering a comprehensive understanding of pedagogical options available to the instructors
