Seventeenth century Albany ,1981      Seventeenth century Albany ,1984      Beverwijck Janny Venema,2010-03-29
Winner of the 2004 Annual Archives Award for Excellence in Research Using the Holdings of the New York State Archives presented by the Board of Regents and the New State York Archives Beverwijck explores the rich history and Dutch heritage of one of North America s oldest cities Albany New York Drawing on documents translated from the colonial Dutch as well as maps architectural drawings and English language sources Janny Venema paints a lively picture of everyday life in colonial America In 1652 Petrus Stuyvesant director general of New Netherland established a court at Fort Orange on the west side of New York State s upper Hudson River The area within three thousand feet of the fort became the village of Beverwijck From the time of its establishment until 1664 when the English conquered New Netherland and changed the name of the settlement to Albany Beverwijck underwent rapid development as newly wealthy traders craftsmen and other workers built houses roads bridges and a school as well as a number of inns A well organized system of poor relief also helped less wealthy settlers survive in the harsh colonial conditions Venema s careful research shows that although Beverwijck resembled villages in the Dutch Republic in many ways it quickly took on features of the new American society that was already coming into being      A Biography of a Map in Motion Christian J. Koot,2018 Reveals the little known history of one of history s most famous maps and its maker Tucked away in a near forgotten collection Virginia and Maryland as it is Planted and Inhabited is one of the most extraordinary maps of colonial British America Created by a colonial merchant planter and diplomat named Augustine Herrman the map pictures the Mid Atlantic in breathtaking detail capturing its waterways coastlines and communities Herrman spent three decades travelling between Dutch New Amsterdam and the English Chesapeake before eventually settling in Maryland and making this map Although the map has been reproduced widely the history of how it became one of the most famous images of the Chesapeake has never been told A Biography of a Map in Motion uncovers the intertwined stories of the map and its maker offering new insights into the creation of empire in North America The book follows the map from the waterways of the Chesapeake to the workshops of London where it was turned into a print and sold Transported into coffee houses private rooms and government offices Virginia and Maryland became an apparatus of empire that allowed English elites to imaginatively possess and accurately manage their Atlantic colonies Investigating this map offers the rare opportunity to recapture the complementary and occasionally conflicting forces that created the British Empire From the colonial and the metropolitan to the economic and the political to the local and the Atlantic this is a fascinating exploration of the many meanings of a map and how what some saw as establishing a sense of local place could translate to forging an empire      Going Dutch Joyce Diane Goodfriend,Benjamin Schmidt,Annette Stott,2008-01-01 This volume investigates the place of Dutch history and Dutch derived culture in America over the last four centuries It considers how the Dutch have fared in America and it explores how American conceptions of Dutchness have developed from Henry

Hudson's historic voyage to Manhattan in 1609 through the rise of Dutch design at the turn of the twenty first century Essays probe a rich array of topics Dutch themes in American arts and letters the place of Dutch paintings in American collections shifting American interests in Dutch art literature and architecture the experience of Dutch immigrants in America and the Dutch Reformed Church in America Going Dutch presents a much needed overview of the Dutch American experience from its beginnings to the present Contributors include Julie Berger Hochstrasser Willem Frijhoff Joyce D Goodfriend Hans Krabbendam Joseph Manca Nancy T Minty Mark A Peterson Christopher Pierce Judith Richardson Louisa Wood Ruby Benjamin Schmidt Robert Schoone Jongen Annette Stott Tity de Vries and Dennis P Weller
