

NOTHING GOLD CAN STAY

BY ROBERT FROST

Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.

the Kyoto screens were conceived and perpetuated as a painting genre that conveyed specific political meanings to viewers even as it provided textured details of city life Students and scholars of Japanese art will find this lavishly illustrated work especially valuable for its insights into the cityscape painting genre while those interested in urban and political history will appreciate its bold exploration of Kyoto's past and the city's late medieval martial elite
