The Medical Critic and Guide William Josephus Robinson,1923 Medico-pharmaceutical Critic and Guide William Josephus Robinson,1923 Boston Glass Ceiling Grace E. Moremen, Editor,2014 There was no doubt that Agnes Edwards had ambition It stemmed from the self confidence she had gained during her university years and from being in the first generation of women to vote Her professors at the University of California Berkeley had encouraged her to pursue a career in publishing or teaching What s more she knew she could support herself with her secretarial skills and job experience So it was in the fall of 1922 that Agnes left her home in California and journeyed to Boston Through three hundred letters she tells the story of her ambition to become an editor and writer at Boston s prestigious Atlantic Monthly Press along with the challenges she faced in finding her way in the male dominated field of book publishing Both triumphs and disappointments awaited her in the city as well as an unexpected romance Going abroad in 1925 she interviewed several authors including A A Milne creator of Winnie the Pooh An entertaining record of one woman s life through the early to mid 1920s Boston Glass Ceiling provides a personal and detailed glimpse into Boston at that time and offers keen insight into the publishing world from a woman s perspective Created for Love Theo Hobson,John Inge,2025-07-24 A sparkling array of leading thinkers and writers in the Church of England bring scripture doctrine tradition and pastoral theology into conversation with culture and lived experience to frame a new understanding of sex and marriage that is both faithful to the past and embracing of the present and counters accusations of an anything goes liberalism by conservative opponents Moving beyond the default arguments and the use of scriptures to shore up fixed positions it offers a welcoming space grounded in theological understanding Here is a bold fresh positive and coherent vision for the future Contributors include Miranda Threlfall Holmes Barnabas Palfry Gareth Wardell John Inge Samuel Wells Olivia Graham Mark Chapman Vivienne Faull Steven Croft Theo Hobson Helen King and Charlie Bell Sex and the Love-life William John Fielding,1927 The Dial Francis Fisher Browne,Waldo Ralph Browne,Scofield Thayer,Marianne Moore,1922 The Great Crowd Michael J. Tan Creti,2014 The Great Crowd is a social history of All Saints Episcopal Church of Omaha Nebraska Founded in 1885 precisely at the moment when Omaha was experiencing a spurt of rapid grown the parish has continued to succeed as a religious community deeply enmeshed in the life of the city It was from the beginning a distinctly urban parish and as change came for the city underwent its changes including a major relocation of its facility It also found itself navigating the changes in national culture and in the character of the larger Episcopal Church Curiously very different rectors eight in all with different configurations of lay leadership drawn from across the city responded to these successive waves of change and yet they held on the conviction that they had maintained the unique identity of the parish that they had inherited from those who had gone before them They did so in no small part by telling their story Drawing from the parish archives including its vestry minutes correspondence and publications the author himself one of the eight rectors has taken up a critical retelling the story bring up to 9 11 2001 These pages contain a strange tapestry of names and faces from Omaha s cowboy mayor to its storied lawyers and devout bus drivers who melded themselves in that strange unity called a parish In the author s telling the story becomes a critical tool for understanding how a Christian community works and for providing a basis for a critical assessment of the purpose and meaning of religious community in American life
