Sex And That Whats It All About:

What IS Sex? Alenka Zupancic, 2017-09-08 Why sexuality is at the point of a short circuit between ontology and epistemology Consider sublimation conventionally understood as a substitute satisfaction for missing sexual satisfaction But what if as Lacan claims we can get exactly the same satisfaction that we get from sex from talking or writing painting praying or other activities The point is not to explain the satisfaction from talking by pointing to its sexual origin but that the satisfaction from talking is itself sexual The satisfaction from talking contains a key to sexual satisfaction and not the other way around even a key to sexuality itself and its inherent contradictions The Lacanian perspective would make the answer to the simple seeming question What is sex rather more complex In this volume in the Short Circuits series Alenka Zupan i approaches the question from just this perspective considering sexuality a properly philosophical problem for psychoanalysis and by psychoanalysis she means that of Freud and Lacan not that of the kind of clinician practitioners called by Lacan orthopedists of the unconscious Zupan i argues that sexuality is at the point of a short circuit between ontology and epistemology Sexuality and knowledge are structured around a fundamental negativity which unites them at the point of the unconscious The unconscious as linked to sexuality is the concept of an inherent link between being and knowledge in their very negativity Love and Sexuality in Dystopian Fiction. An Analysis of "Brave New World" and "Nineteen Eighty-Four"

Lena Gräf, 2016-04-26 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2 3 language English abstract This term paper is supposed to deal with how love and sex are depicted in Brave New World and 1984 and if there are any similarities between them Furthermore we will take a brief look at differences and similarities to love and sex in our society What is the attitude towards marriage these days And what is the role of love in all of that After this we will then hopefully be able to identify what love and sex in dystopian fiction means Ever since Thomas More s Utopia love and sex have been a part of dystopian novels In Thomas More s times his depictions were groundbreaking Women were not allowed to marry until they were 18 In the past this was highly unusual since most women married at the age of around 14 Furthermore divorce is forbidden which at this point mirrors the time More lived in This clearly influenced all the following writers of dystopian novels They imagine a world that is negatively silhouetted against their own world And since love is a big part of every society it is also a big part in every dystopian society When looking for the most famous dystopian novels on Google two that are immediately suggested are Brave New World by Aldous Huxley and 1984 by George Orwell Both have one thing in common their rather negative and for us rather unusual attitude towards love relationships and sex The Evolution of Sex Sir Patrick Geddes, John Arthur Thomson, 1889 What is Life?
