Sex Life Of Food When Body And Soul Meet To Eat:

The Sex Life of Food Bunny Crumpacker, 2007-04-01 The sex life of food doesn't mean that the strawberries have fallen in love with the oatmeal. It's a look at food and sex and how they go together in our daily lives much more often than we realize. There are so many ways that hunger and desire act on each other and so many things that can influence our preferences. Not only are people moved by the taste, texture and the shapes of the food they eat but even the names of some dishes can kindle hunger of both kinds in some. As the author writes: Sometimes cooking is foreplay, eating is making love and doing the dishes is the morning after. The many things Bunny Crumpacker shares with the readers of her fascinating book almost could have inspired her to write a novel sending Adam and Eve with their apple traveling through history as the icons of our passions. Instead she has gone far beyond the obvious to bring us unexpected and tantalizing knowledge of how much and in how many surprising ways we assuage our hunger for both food and sex and how where there's one there is often the other. The result is a continued delight. There's history and humor, obvious connections and truly amazing ones. The author enlightens us on a myriad of topics including food in fairy tales, what politicians eat, comfort food and manners at the table. But enough. There's too much to say. Turn the pages and let Bunny Crumpacker introduce you to The Sex Life of Food.

Seeds: Proceedings of the Oxford Symposium on Food and Cookery 2018 Mark McWilliams, 2019-07-01 This edited collection contains papers presented on the theme of Seeds at the 2018 Oxford Food Symposium. Thirty-six articles by forty-one authors are included. Romancing the Zombie Ashley Szanter, Jessica K. Richards, 2017-10-20 The zombie popular culture's undead darling shows no signs of stopping. But as it develops to suit changing audience tastes, its characteristics transform. This collection of new essays examines the latest incarnation: the romantic zombie, a re-humanized monster we want to help heal and connect with rather than destroy. The authors discuss our increasingly sympathetic view of the reanimated dead as more than physical bodies devoid of life and personality. Their essays cover a range of topics including audience obsession with Apocalyptic love, the problem of a kinder, gentler undead, the millennial reinvention of the sexy zombie and uncanny valley romance. Food Words Peter Jackson, 2013-05-23 Food Words is an A-Z series of provocative essays on key topics in the dynamic field of food studies, focusing on current controversies and debates.

Gastrophysics Charles Spence, 2017-06-20 The science behind a good meal: all the sounds, sights and tastes that make us like what we're eating and want to eat more. Why do we consume 35 percent more food when eating with one other person and 75 percent more when dining with three? How do we explain the fact that people who like strong coffee drink more of it under bright lighting? And why does green ketchup just not work? The answer is gastrophysics, the new area of sensory science pioneered by Oxford professor Charles Spence. Now he's stepping out of his lab to lift the lid on the entire eating experience: how the taste, the aroma and our overall enjoyment of food are influenced by all of our senses as well as by our mood and expectations. The pleasures of food lie mostly in the mind, not in the mouth. Get that straight and you can start to understand what really makes food enjoyable stimulating and most important memorable Spence reveals in amusing detail the importance of all the off the plate elements of a meal the weight of cutlery the color of the plate the background music and much more Whether we re dining alone or at a dinner party on a plane or in front of the TV he reveals how to understand what we re tasting and influence what others experience This is accessible science at its best fascinating to anyone in possession of an appetite Crammed with discoveries about our everyday sensory lives Gastrophysics is a book guaranteed to make you look at your plate in a whole new way Perspectives on Multisensory Human-Food Interaction Carlos Velasco,Marianna Obrist,Gijs Huisman,Anton Nijholt,Charles Spence,Kosuke Motoki,Takuji Narumi,2022-01-28 Library Journal Melvil Dewey,Richard Rogers Bowker,L.
