Daphna Arbel,2022-01-13 Vita Daphna Arbel uses critical theories of gender to offer an alternative reading of the multilayered conceptualization of the Song of Song s feminine protagonist the most beautiful woman Arbel treats the most beautiful woman as a culturally constructed and performed representation of woman and situates this representation within the cultural discursive contexts in which the Song partly emerged She examines the gender norms and cultural ideologies it both reflects and constructs and considers the manner in which this complex representation disrupts rigid ahistorical notions of femininity and how it consequently indirectly characterizes womanhood as dynamic and diverse Finally Arbel examines the reception and impact of these ideas on later conceptualizations of the Song of Songs female protagonist with a heuristic examination of Mark Chagall s Song of Songs painting cycle Le Cantique des Cantiques These compositions selected for their diverse depictions of the Song s protagonist their impact on European art and their vast popularity and bearing in the broader cultural imagination illustrate a fascinating dialogue between the present and the past about the most beautiful woman and about multiple femininities      Generations and Geographies in the Visual Arts: Feminist Readings Griselda Pollock,2005-08-12 In Generations and Geographies in the Visual Arts: Feminist Readings the challenge of contemporary feminist theory encounters the provocation of the visual arts made by women in the twentieth century The major issue is difference sexual cultural and social The book points to the singularity of each artist s creative negotiation of time and historical and political circumstance Griselda Pollock calls attention to the significance of place location and cultural diversity connecting issues of sexuality to those of nationality imperialism migration diaspora and genocide
