Shack Out On 101:

TCM Underground Millie De Chirico, Quatoyiah Murry, 2022-10-25 Based on the Turner Classic Movies series TCM Underground is the movie lover's guide to 50 of the most campy kitschy shocking and weirdly wonderful cult films you need to see. In the pages of this book you'll explore this unique order of films primarily from the 1960s, 70s, and 80s with insightful reviews, behind-the-scenes stories, subgenre sidebars, and full color and black and white photography throughout. Go along for the ride with new takes on crime films including The Honeymoon Killers and The Harder They Come. Witness one of a kind horror in Bill Gunn's landmark vampire film Ganja and Hess and Nobuhiko Obayashi's infamous and indescribable Hausu. Absorb the boundary pushing documentary style trilogy The Decline of Western Civilization which throws you into indelible moments in the punk and metal music scenes. And marvel at pure 80s oddities like Mac and Me and The Garbage Pail Kids. From Possession to Polyester and Beyond the Valley of the Dolls to Xanadu, no two films are alike in this compendium. Just sit back and prepare to be surprised, amused, and entertained by this celebration of the stars, filmmakers, and stories behind fifty of the most beguiling and unforgettable movies ever to hit the screen.

The Red and the Black Robert Miklitsch, 2016-12-07 Critical wisdom has it that we said a long goodbye to film noir in the 1950s. Robert Miklitsch begs to differ. Pursuing leads down the back streets and alleyways of cultural history, The Red and the Black proposes that the received rise and fall narrative about the genre radically undervalues the formal and thematic complexity of 50s noir and the dynamic segue it effected between the spectacular expressionism of 40s noir and early modernist neo noir. Mixing scholarship with a fan's devotion to the crooked roads of critique, Miklitsch autopsies marquee films like D O A, Niagara, and Kiss Me Deadly, plus a number of lesser known classics. Throughout he addresses the social and technological factors that dealt deuce after deuce to the genre: its celebrated style threatened by new media and technologies such as TV and 3 D color and widescreen; its born losers replaced like zombies by All American heroes; the nation rocked by the red menace and nightmares of nuclear annihilation. But against all odds, the author argues, inventive filmmakers continued to make formally daring and socially compelling pictures that remain surprisingly startlingly alive. Cutting edge and entertaining, The Red and the Black reconsiders a lost period in the history of American movies.

Lee Marvin Robert J. Lentz, 2015-09-15 Lee Marvin did not receive his first starring film role until he was 40, but in three short years following the successes of Cat Ballou for which he won the Academy Award as Best Actor, The Professionals, and especially The Dirty Dozen, he was the most popular film actor in America. Marvin was a fascinating man, a loving husband and father, and one of the most natural, effective actors of his time. This is a comprehensive reference of the Oscar winning actor's work. It includes biographical information on Marvin, an analysis of each of his 64 movies, chapters on his two television shows, M Squad and Lawbreaker, a listing of his television appearances, and a complete filmography which includes video availability. The work is supplemented with dozens of photographs and film stills.

The Screen Is Red Bernard F. Dick, 2016-03-14 The Screen Is Red portrays Hollywood's ambivalence toward the former Soviet Union before during and after the Cold War In the 1930s communism combated its alter ego fascism yet both threatened to undermine the capitalist system the movie industry's foundational core value Hollywood portrayed fascism as the greater threat and communism as an aberration embraced by young idealists unaware of its dark side In Ninotchka all a female commissar needs is a trip to Paris to convert her to capitalism and the luxuries it can offer The scenario changed when Nazi Germany invaded the Soviet Union in 1941 making Russia a short lived ally The Soviets were quickly glorified in such films as Song of Russia The North Star Mission to Moscow Days of Glory and Counter Attack But once the Iron Curtain fell on Eastern Europe the scenario changed again America was now swarming with Soviet agents attempting to steal some crucial piece of microfilm On screen the atomic detonations in the Southwest produced mutations in ants locusts and spiders and revived long dead monsters from their watery tombs The movies did not blame the atom bomb specifically but showed what horrors might result in addition to the iconic mushroom cloud Through the lens of Hollywood a nuclear war might leave a handful of survivors Five none On the Beach Dr Strangelove or cities in ruins Fail Safe Today the threat is no longer the Soviet Union but international terrorism Author Bernard F Dick argues however that the Soviet Union has not lost its appeal as evident from the popular and critically acclaimed television series The Americans More than eighty years later the screen is still red
