Post-Yugoslav Cinema and the Shadows of War Asja Makarevic, 2025-10-01 Bosnia Herzegovina is still considered a post war country The concept of post war implies that the country and its people are tied more strongly to the past than they are oriented towards the future Paradoxically as long as the future is kept at bay and the post war condition kept alive Bosnia maintains a certain significance on the global scene However living in the temporal vacuum of the post war condition cannot be a long term perspective A range of post Yugoslav films provides spectators with images that offer innovative approaches to the collective past while simultaneously reframing contemporary experience This study proposes to call non representational images appears to offer a more dynamic relationship to the past and the present while reflecting complex processes of the formation of identity memory guilt and responsibility But if these dynamics are inherent in non representational images is there a way in which they can contribute to overcoming the post war condition

Treasure of the Spanish Civil War Serge Pey, 2020-03-03 An intimate portrait of childhood during Spain s violent fascist regime rendered in a surreal kaleidoscope of linked stories Serge Pey s stories are lyrical vivid vignettes of life during and directly following Spain s violent fascist regime of the thirties and forties The collection is a defiant ode to the resilience of the human spirit each story depicting a small act of human resistance a man plants a fruit tree for each of his assassinated comrades a professor hides a secret library of banned books in plain sight Many of the stories are surreal fable like impressions from the perspective of children caught in the midst of the political violence Pey s understated yet unusual prose renders a brutal landscape with childlike wonder The Treasure of the Spanish Civil War and Other Tales is a strikingly original meditation on courage survival and hope in the face of oppression
