Local Histories/Global Designs Walter D. Mignolo, 2000-01-17 This book is an extended argument on the coloniality of power by one of the most innovative scholars of Latin American studies In a shrinking world where sharp dichotomies such as East West and developing developed blur and shift Walter Mignolo points to the inadequacy of current practice in the social sciences and area studies He introduces the crucial notion of colonial difference into study of the modern colonial world He also traces the emergence of new forms of knowledge which he calls border thinking Further he expands the horizons of those debates already under way in postcolonial studies of Asia and Africa by dwelling in the genealogy of thoughts of South Central America the Caribbean and Latino as in the United States His concept of border gnosis or what is known from the perspective of an empire's borderlands counters the tendency of occidental perspectives to dominate and thus limit understanding The book is divided into three parts the first chapter deals with epistemology and postcoloniality the next three chapters deal with the geopolitics of knowledge the last three deal with the languages and cultures of scholarship Here the author reintroduces the analysis of civilization from the perspective of globalization and argues that rather than one civilizing process dominated by the West the continually emerging subaltern voices break down the dichotomies characteristic of any cultural imperialism By underscoring the fractures between globalization and mundializacion Mignolo shows the locations of emerging border epistemologies and of post occidental reason In a new preface that discusses Local Histories Global Designs as a dialogue with Hegel's Philosophy of History Mignolo connects his argument with the unfolding of history in the first decade of the twenty first century Local Histories/global Designs Walter Mignolo, 2012-08-26 Local Histories Global Designs is an extended argument about the coloniality of power In a shrinking world where sharp dichotomies such as East West and developing developed blur and shift Walter Mignolo points to the inadequacy of current practices in the social sciences and area studies On Moral Medicine M.
