Shadows on Our Skin Jennifer Johnston,1978 Growing up in Northern Ireland with the snipers assassins and bombs takes a special kind of heroism For twelve year old Joe Logan his special friend brings safety and peace But even that innocent friendship can lead to tragedy Shadows on Our Skin, Jennifer Johnston Linda Flynn,Sally West,1989

Architecture beyond Anthropocene Elizabeth B Hatz,2019-09-19 Essays on Architecture in the Anthropocene 44 young architects in the making share their reflections and possible impossible stances facing architecture in the Anthropocene Every text here has a core of doubt Doubt that opens up to some insight or towards a focus an interest an outlet Every text has an unusual stillness brought forth through reflection Reason and feeling are balancing on a tightrope In the suspense I imagine humour will enter It is always best above the abyss Geschichte der anglo-irischen Literatur

Heinz Kosok,1990 Belonging bell hooks,2009-01-01 What does it mean to call a place home Who is allowed to become a member of a community When can we say that we truly belong These are some of the questions of place and belonging that renowned cultural critic bell hooks examines in her new book Belonging: A Culture of Place Traversing past and present Belonging charts a cyclical journey in which hooks moves from place to place from country to city and back again only to end where she began her old Kentucky home hooks has written provocatively about race gender and class and in this book she turns her attention to focus on issues of land and land ownership Reflecting on the fact that 90% of all black people lived in the agrarian South before mass migration to northern cities in the early 1900s she writes about black farmers about black folks who have been committed both in the past and in the present to local food production to being organic and to finding solace in nature Naturally it would be impossible to contemplate these issues without thinking about the politics of race and class Reflecting on the racism that continues to find expression in the world of real estate she writes about segregation in housing and economic racialized zoning In these critical essays hooks finds surprising connections that link of the environment and sustainability to the politics of race and class that reach far beyond Kentucky With characteristic insight and honesty Belonging offers a remarkable vision of a world where all people wherever they may call home can live fully and well where everyone can belong The St. Louis and Canadian Photographer ,1892 Studien zur englischen und amerikanischen Prosa nach dem Ersten Weltkrieg Maria Diedrich,Christoph Schöneich,1986

Yearning bell hooks,2014-10-10 For bell hooks the best cultural criticism sees no need to separate politics from the pleasure of reading Yearning collects together some of hooks s classic and early pieces of cultural criticism from the 80s Addressing topics like pedagogy postmodernism and politics hooks examines a variety of cultural artifacts from Spike Lee s film Do the Right Thing and Wim Wenders s film Wings of Desire to the writings of Zora Neale Hurston and Toni Morrison The result is a poignant collection of essays which like all of hooks s work is above all else concerned with transforming oppressive structures of domination Second Skin Anne Anlin Cheng, 2010-12-10 Through the figure of Josephine Baker Second Skin tells the story of an unexpected yet enduring intimacy between the invention of a modernist style and the theatricalization of black skin at the turn of the twentieth century Stepping outside of the platitudes surrounding this iconic figure Anne A Cheng argues that Baker's famous nakedness must be understood within larger philosophic and aesthetic debates about and desire for pure surface that crystallized at the convergence of modern art architecture machinery and philosophy Through Cheng's analysis Baker emerges as a central artist whose work engages with and impacts various modes of modernist display such as film photography art and even the modern house Double Visions James M. Cahalan, 1999 In this book James M Cahalan examines gender issues in the writings and in the lives of a dozen notable Irish authors and their fictional characters Covering literature from the late nineteenth century to the present he seeks to close the gender gap in Irish literary history by pairing similar works of fiction by both men and women The author addresses for instance how women writers characterizations of men compare with men's representations of women Sensitive to other distinctions such as class and region Cahalan reveals differences in perceptions of shared subjects such as politics and autobiography to illuminate a series of double visions Contents include readings of the Aran Islands narratives of Emily Lawless and Liam O Flaherty the comic fictions and serious careers of Somerville and Ross and James Joyce the coming of age novels of Edna O'Brien and John McGahern and Brian Moore and Troubles novels by four authors Jennifer Johnston and Bernard MacLaverty and Julia O Faolain and William Trevor The book's introduction is a far ranging critique of feminist criticism and gender issues in Irish cultural history while the conclusion touches on several other recent Irish novels and films Film Directors Michael Singer, 1992 Irish Writers and Society at Large Masaru Sekine, 1985 Ref z konferencji zorganizowanej przez The International Association for the Study of Anglo Irish Literature Japan IASAIL JAPAN na Uniwersytecie Waseda w Tokio w 1984 Fortnight, 1991 The Statesman, 1976 The Canadian Journal of Irish Studies, 1992 A Dictionary of the English Language Joseph Emerson Worcester, 1884 The Forging of a Rebel Arturo Barea, 2001 Originally published in the late 1940s and never before available in paperback in the United States Barea's astounding Spanish trilogy is both the autobiography of a man and the biography of a nation during the first four decades of the 20th century one of the most crucial periods in Spain's long history Michael Singer's Film Directors Michael Singer, 1993
