Sexual And Gender Harassment In The Academy A Guide For Faculty Students and Administrators:

Sexual and Gender Harassment in the Academy Phyllis Franklin, 1981 Women and Language in Transition Joyce Penfield, 1987-08-01 This collection of essays deals with the interplay of language and social change asking the question How can language and society be made gender equal The contributors examine the critical role of language in the lives of white women and women of color in the United States Since language pervades many dimensions of women s lives this study takes a multi disciplinary approach to the issues considered The volume is divided into three sections The first Liberating Language focuses on the active role women had in altering the extent of linguistic sexism in English during the 1970s A second section Identity Creation deals with the alteration of that portion of language which serves to name women and their experiences The final section Women of Color offers a rare and timely look at the particular problems confronted by minority women It argues that women of color have different problems and different links to language than white middle class women
