Welch, PhD, 2022-07-01 Have man and woman become meaningless categories Public promotion of transgender identities same sex marriage and surrogate parenthood indicate that we no longer view male and female as central to human flourishing Perhaps man and woman amount to nothing more than one's own self expression Many intuitively resist such a view but feel unable to respond in light of woke rhetoric from media driven voices carrying the apparent blessings of science We need to recall who and what we are Sexual Identity The Harmony of Philosophy Science and Revelation takes up anew the questions What is a man and What is a woman Taking a holistic approach the book is co authored by experts from different fields philosophy obstetrics and gynecology endocrinology psychology plastic surgery and theology For the sake of accessibility the style is thoughtful but not academic Each chapter includes review points along with suggestions for further reading The authors include recognized practitioners in their fields who have spoken nationally and internationally to audiences concerned with today's crisis over the meaning of sexuality Sexual Identity assembles these voices into a coherent whole Written by experts for non specialists it offers a comprehensive vision of the human sexual identity male and female It offers much needed wisdom to see through the deceptions that afflict our time Contributors Cara Buskmiller MD John D Finley PhD Paul W Hruz MD PhD Patrick W Lappert MD Andrew Sodergren PsyD Lawrence J Welch PhD

Copeland, 1976 Sexual Identity Noraini Mohd. Noor, 2005 Gender and Sexual Identities in Transition José Santaemilia, Patricia Bou, 2008 The aim of this volume is to offer an international panorama of gendered and sexualised experiences with new and original data collected from a variety of cultural settings and sociopolitical contexts We look at many parts of the world Japan Sweden Poland Cyprus Spain US Australia Canada Hungary with different assumptions and expectations often revealing various research practices and traditions Gendered or sexualized discourses are unstable constructions in permanent transition in a perpetual struggle to gain social legitimacy and to counter the workings of opposite discourses They constitute privileged vantage points from which one can observe and judge power relationships New identities are created and reproduced refused and challenged This volume explores among other issues the perpetuation of hegemonic masculinity in Evangelical universities the pharmaceutical industry TM's promotion of biometaphors involving a shopping strategy which revolves around compulsory heterosexuality the perpetuation of Greek Cypriot men TM's sexual superiority over women the Catholic Church's attempt to impose a restrictive view of religion and of sexual ethics the consolidation of American TV shopping channels as a setting where middle class femininity and consumption are linked stereotypically the negotiation of gender and sex related norms in groups of British Bangladeshi girls Even heterosexuality as the unmarked form of sexual identity and the primary site for the reproduction of gender difference needs to reassert its normative and prescriptive status maybe through the silent workings of tradition By suggesting the concept of transition we resist seeing the idea of identity as a fixed and definitive category Gender and sexual identities are never at rest One is never finished developing into a woman or a man or any other gender sexual identity Contributors
