Praying With New Testament:

Biblical Theology of prayer in the Old Testament Albert J. Coetsee, Francois P. Viljoen, 2023-08-31 Prayer is a major topic within Christian theology. The biblical text has various references to various recorded and reported prayers. In fact, references to prayer are found within the rich diversity of the various books, corpora, and genres of Scripture. As can be expected, much has been written about prayer in the biblical text. However, a comprehensive Biblical Theology dealing with the concept of prayer in Scripture has not been published before, and this book intends to fill this gap, assuming that such an approach can provide a valuable contribution to the theological discourse on prayer and related concepts. This book aims to investigate prayer and its related elements, including worship, praise, thanksgiving, adoration, petition, intercession, lament, and confession, in the Old Testament, on a book-by-book or corpus-by-corpus basis. The investigation follows a Biblical Theological approach, reading the Old Testament on a book-by-book basis in its final form to uncover the Old Testament's overarching theology of prayer, understanding the parts in relation to the whole. By doing this, the discrete nuances of the prayers of the different Old Testament books and corpora can be uncovered, letting the books and corpora speak for themselves. In addition, the advantage of this approach is that it provides findings that can benefit the modern Christian community and contribute to the practice of Reformed theology in Africa. This book is of significant value to scholars. It will inspire scholars to think about prayer and use the Bible as the major prayer handbook in their spiritual lives. The Prayers of the New Testament

From the exuberant praise of Moses and Miriam to the desperate cries of Jeremiah, the First Testament is rich with heartfelt prayers to our Father. Yet prayer, as it is found in the Christian scriptures, has received limited attention as a topic of study. Into God's Presence explores the nature and use of prayer throughout the entire New Testament. Written by twelve leading biblical scholars with diverse confessional perspectives, this insightful volume first discusses Christian prayer in relation to prayer in the Old Testament, the Greco-Roman world, first-century Judaism, and the Dead Sea Scrolls. The rest of the book takes an instructive look at prayer as it appears from Matthew to Revelation, with special attention given to Jesus as an exemplar and teacher of prayer The Theology of the Four Gospels Mel Shoemaker, 2011-10 Biblical theology is the discovery and development of doctrine as found and emphasized by a specific book of the Bible Instead of beginning with a subject and then searching the scriptures broadly to assemble what may be relevant and illuminate one's understanding of that specific topic biblical theology starts with a particular author and focuses upon a specific scriptural unit The objective is to let the Bible speak for itself and discover what the original writer's wanted readers or those listening to the reading to understand Therefore New Testament biblical theology assists the student in understanding the distinctive doctrinal enrichment each book in the Christian canon brings to the collection of authoritative literature The Theology of the Four Gospels is designed to engage an individual or group in a fresh study of the teachings of Jesus and the distinctive perspectives of the Four Evangelists Matthew Mark Luke and John Even though everyone participating in the study is examining the same literature the conclusions may vary widely which may contribute to a very fruitful discussion Why should one anticipate a variety of interpretations Each person comes to the study of the Bible with prior opinions judgments and beliefs These presuppositions have been formed by our culture e.g. ethnicity political social economic and religious background critical knowledge educational background in history literature language natural abilities life experiences and age and character moral values belief in the supernatural human immortality accountability rational choices and spiritual maturity This is the goal to let the Four Gospels speak for themselves The theological outcome may be tentative and provisional however the reader or student becomes engaged in the process of building a sound personal theology and a steadfast living faith in Jesus Christ Hours with the Bible, New Testament.
