James, 2003 Predestination and justification are two of the most distinctive and familiar doctrines associated with the Protestant Reformation Martyr an influential Protestant theologian and biblical exegete of the sixteenth century engages advocates and detractors alike in his most extensive discussions of these controversial theological topics drawn from his monumental commentary on the Apostle Paul's letter to the Romans The great value of these two treatises is that they provide a vital if unheralded Protestant perspective on what were two of the most controverted doctrines of the Reformation era not only between Roman Catholics and Protestants but also among the Reformed Lutheran and Anabaptists as well

Richard Hooker and his Early Doctrine of Justification Cornelius C. Simut, 2019-10-01. Richard Hooker and his Early Doctrine of Justification explores the doctrine of justification, the doctrine of faith and grace, and the doctrine of Scripture and use of reason in the early theology of Richard Hooker. In order to prove that Hooker was a Protestant Reformed theologian, Simut concentrates on Hooker's doctrine of justification as reflected in his Learned Discourse of Justification, which is the most important work of his early theology. Unlike previous books on Hooker which use primarily the theology of Luther and Calvin to draw conclusions, this book brings together quotations and ideas from the works of Luther, Melancthon, Zwingli, Bucer, Calvin, and Beza to show that Hooker was a Protestant Reformed theologian. Simut also discusses the theological context of Hooker's career by offering an analysis of the doctrine of justification in the theology of John Jewel, John Whitgift, Hooker's patrons, and Thomas Cartwright and Walter Travers. Hooker's Puritan opponents.

Justification by Faith Gerhard O. Forde, 2012-04-11. Justification by faith alone labels theologically the motor that energizes the Reformation. The dynamic behind the language can still mean renewal for theology and church today, but only if that legal metaphor is not left to stand alone. Gerhard Forde calls for a recovery of Paul's equally vital metaphor of death and resurrection, which speaks of our dying to the old and being raised to new life in Christ. Justification, he contends, is death and rising and where these complementary metaphors are allowed to interpret one another the Gospel can once again explode with all its original power This fresh appropriation of the confessional witness contributes not only to an enhanced understanding of Reformation teachings but also to an ecumenical dialogue that is zeroing in more closely on the catholic provenance and current vitality of the Augsburg Confession

Augustine of Hippo and Martin Luther on Original Sin and Justification of the Sinner Jairzinho Lopes Pereira, 2013-12-11

The book is divided into two parts The first part deals with the development of Augustine's theology of Original Sin and Justification Here the emphasis is placed on the defining moments of this development process These moments are the second half of 390s period during which the Church Father wrote two of his key works De diversis quaestionibus ad Simplicianum 396-397 and Confessiones 397-400 and the last twelve years of his literary career with emphasis on the works he produced in the heat of the long and bitter confrontation with Julian of Aelanus In the second part Pereira deals with Luther's doctrines of Original Sin and Justification of the sinner The main source of analysis is Luther's Lectures on Romans 1515-1516 There is an intrinsic relation between the two parts of the work The author demonstrates how Augustine came to break with the patristic soteriology and anthropological theology and adopted the radicalism of grace with which he faced the theologians associated with the fifth century Pelagianism especially Julian of Aelanus In the second part Pereira argues that it was precisely that radicalism of grace that made of Augustine Luther's favourite theologian The same radicalism of grace was adopted by Luther in his opposition to the recentiores doctores the Nominalist theologians especially Gabriel Biel Without overlooking the crucial role played by the Pauline corpus one can accurately say that Augustine's anti-Pelagian thesis were at the core of the young Luther's soteriological and anthropological claims essential to understand what the Lutheran insurgency was all about and were the driving force behind Luther's cry for reformation at least as far as the doctrine of salvation was concerned When it comes to the doctrine of salvation Augustine found in Luther a prominent reader and a faithful follower To understand this fact it would suffice a careful analysis of Luther's doctrine of justification by faith alone since it contains a strong and genuine Augustinian tonality

Therefore since we have been justified by faith we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ Rom

5 1 When Paul wrote these words he seemed confident he had made himself clear But for centuries the Pauline doctrine of justification has been a classic point of interpretation and debate in Christian exegesis and theology And while in recent decades there have been moments of hopeful convergence among the various traditions of the Western church the fine print often reveals more facets and distinctions than ever before This volume focuses on five views of justification and calls on representative proponents to set forth their case and then respond to each other The five views are Traditional Reformed Michael S Horton Progressive Reformed Michael F Bird New Perspective James D G Dunn Deification or Theosis Veli Matti Kärkkäinen Roman Catholic Gerald O Collins and Oliver Rafferty In addition editors James Beilby Paul R Eddy and Steven E Enderlein provide an extensive introduction to the issues informing this important debate This distinguished forum of biblical interpreters and theologians offers a lively and informative engagement with the biblical historical and contemporary understandings of justification Justification Five Views is not only a fascinating probe into Paul's meaning it is also a case book in theological method

The Doctrine of Salvation in the Sermons of Richard Hooker Corneliu C. Simut, 2005 This specialist work in historical theology deals with the doctrine of salvation in the early theology of Richard Hooker 1554-1600 from the perspective of the concept of faith and with Hooker's connections to the early English Reformers W Tyndale J Frith R Barnes T Cranmer J Bradford and J Foxe in crucial teachings such as justification sanctification glorification election reprobation the sovereignty of God and salvation of Catholics The study proves that Hooker's theology is firstly Protestant to counter the views which picture it as Catholic and secondly Calvinist

Scholasticism Reformed Maarten Wisse, Marcel Sarot, Willemien Otten, 2010-04-16 This Festschrift celebrates Professor

Willem J van Asselt's many contributions to the study of Reformed scholasticism on the occasion of his retirement from Utrecht University. The authors argue that the resurgence of interest in scholasticism especially in Reformed scholasticism has in turn reformed our views of scholasticism. While most of the volume's essays contribute to the reassessment of scholasticism through relevant historical case studies or new systematic analyses of the value and validity of scholasticism for contemporary theology, some authors endeavour a critical confrontation with various aspects of this reassessment. Thus this volume not only mirrors Van Asselt's interest in the sound historical evaluation of Reformed scholasticism and its application to contemporary philosophical theology but also provides cutting edge scholarship on a major development in historical theology.
