Praying With Dorothy Day Companions For The Journey:

Praying with Dorothy Day James Allaire, Rosemary Broughton, 1995 This is quite simply the best introduction I know to the life and spirit of Dorothy Day It helps the reader meet Dorothy Day and the people and the God she loved so much 15

Days of Prayer With Dorothy Day Michael Boover, 2013-12-25 Dorothy Day connected radical faith with doing radical deeds Beginning from her discovery of God in the Word when she was eight years old Michael Boover shares Dorothy's reflections about her pilgrimage to the daily discipline of readiness and openness to God in her life especially to God in her neighbor He shares her words on why and how she prays on her preference for frequent confession on her intentional choice of suffering and poverty and on her desire to imitate the saints and to make sanctity the norm of everyone's life In these 15 days we see how Dorothy's discipline gave her true freedom In particular it allowed her to give priority to Love to take the most direct route to God by loving her neighbor She recognized the paucity of her own best spiritual efforts and took refuge in the fact that God would do for believers what they could not fully do for themselves Boover's practical exercises emulate Day's own temperament They push you to live with more integrity and deeper love and they show a deep compassion for the difficulty of the challenge

Catholic Heroes of Civil and Human Rights Matthew Daniels, Roxanne King, 2024-09-13 This inspiring work profiles sixteen heroic Catholic men and women who defied the odds to advance civil and human rights around the world Spanning from the birth of the United States to World War II Germany to the current Latin American immigration crisis this book features people whose faith drove them to courageously defend the dignity of the children of God especially the most vulnerable transforming many lives and paving the way for a more equitable society To understand human rights however we need theology Supported by official Church documents each chapter is themed on one of the pillars of Catholic social teaching freedom perseverance hope justice and conscience These short compelling biographies of figures who exemplify each pillar demonstrate how the teachings of Christ through his Church can drive ordinary believers to do extraordinary deeds Among the heroes are former slave Venerable Father Augustine Tolton Austrian farmer Blessed Franz J gersttter Native American catechist Nicholas Black Elk Servant of God Dorothy Day Saint Katharine Drexel Saint Teresa of Calcutta and Saint Oscar Romero

Faith and Feminism Helen LaKelly Hunt, 2007-11-01 Why do so many women of faith have such a strong aversion to feminism And why do so many feminists have an ardent mistrust of religion These questions are at the heart of Helen LaKelly Hunt's illuminating look at the alliance between spiritual conviction and social action Intelligent and heartfelt Faith and Feminism offers a perceptive look at the lives of five spirited and spiritual women of history women who combined their undying faith with feminist beliefs and who made the world a better place by doing so St Teresa of vila a woman whose bravery in confronting her shadows gave her the strength to connect with the world and live a life of divine action Lucretia Mott a Quaker minister who rose from her quiet upbringing to become a passionate speaker and activist working tirelessly on behalf of justice and peace Sojourner Truth a Christian slave who spoke out with unwavering courage to claim her God given rightful place as an African American and a woman Emily Dickinson an extraordinary poet who touched the world with her ability to capture and transform the experience of suffering Dorothy Day a radical journalist who lived a life of voluntary poverty as a way of expressing her passion for the Christian faith and care for those in need A remarkable book that focuses on the idea that spirituality and feminism are really different expressions of the same impulse to make life more whole Faith and Feminism offers a powerful catalyst for reflecting on our sense of self and for living and loving according to our deepest values

U.S. Catholic Historian ,1998      The Blackwell Companion to Christian Spirituality Arthur Holder,2011-04-27 The Blackwell Companion to Christian Spirituality is a comprehensive single volume introduction to Christian spirituality and represents the most significant recent developments in the field Offers a thoroughly interdisciplinary broadly ecumenical and representative overview of the most significant recent developments in the field Comprises essays combining rigorous academic scholarship with accessible and elegant writing Reflects an understanding of the field as the study of the lived experience of Christian faith and discipleship Provides material on biblical historical and theological foundations along with treatment of contemporary issues

Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998      Companion to the Calendar Mary Ellen Hynes,1993 This superb resource and guide for children and adults alike answers all sorts of who and what and why questions about saints the liturgical seasons Jewish and Muslim holy days and significant national holidays You will find an amazing variety of information on how these people and days hold meaning for our lives today Use this book in conjunction with LTP s Year of Grace calendar in the home or in the classroom A list of suggested readings a bibliography and a handy index are included

Uncommon Prayer Michael Plekon,2016-09-15 In Uncommon Prayer Prayer in Everyday Experience Michael Plekon wants to change our minds on what constitutes prayer In doing so he makes a theological claim that commonplace aspects of the Christian life are best understood as prayer whereby encouraging us to see that everyday life carries religious import prayer and the religious life are not restricted to special places and times but are open to all believers at all times Plekon examines the works of diverse authors including many who have challenged the status quo of institutional churches He asks us to listen to what poets writers activists and others tell us about how they pray at work and at home with colleagues family and friends in all the experiences of life from joy to suffering sadness to hope Among them are Sarah Coakley Rowan Williams Heather Havrilesky Sara Miles Thomas

Merton Mary Oliver Christian Wiman Mary Karr Barbara Brown Taylor Dorothy Day Maria Skobtsova Paul Evdokimov Seraphim of Sarov and Richard Rohr Plekon argues that prayer encompasses a much wider variety of activity than formal and liturgical prayers and that by recognizing such aspects of prayer the believer is made more receptive to transformative aspects of prayerful attitudes Books in Print ,1991 Companions for the Soul Robert R. Hudson,1995 Build each day on time tested faith with this anthology of 366 classic Christian readings Men and women of history from diverse Christian traditions share their love of Christ in Companions for the Soul This devotional recalls the conversions of important historical figures saints days sermon dates and other events with the writings of Bunyan Finney and other Christians of earlier times The Catholic Worker ,1993 Teach Us to Pray Bradley Hanson,1990 Bradley Hanson casts new light on several difficulties we experience in prayer and gives suggestions that he and others have found helpful The Catholic Faith Brennan Hill,1997 In this book you will begin by looking at how humans have searched from the beginning of time for the ultimate reality who is the source of their lives and the goal for which they strive Next you will examine Jesus message his good news that God loves all of us especially those who are poor or oppressed You will ponder on the Catholic belief in life after death and see how the road to such eternal happiness is one of love love of God neighbor and self Midway through your journey you will discover the Spirit of Jesus the Spirit whom he promised to send to each of us the Comforter whom he promised would be with us all days You will also explore how the Church a community that struggles to follow Jesus teachings and example works to carry on his mission of service The seven sacraments are places where Catholics uniquely meet up with Jesus Christ The search will close where it began with a look at people s efforts to reach out to God The final chapter will address prayer the lifting up of the mind and heart to God and the listening to God s self revelation Introd Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1997-12 Origins ,1997 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2004
