sources It is therefore the goal of this Yearbook to make this information available in one publication which both organizes and records events over the course of a year through analytical articles a chronicle primary documents and a bibliography Topics include inter alia peacekeeping peace war conflict resolution diplomacy international law international security humanitarian relief humanitarian law and terrorism The Yearbook is of scholarly quality but is not narrowly theoretical It provides the interested public diplomats civil servants politicians the military academics journalists NGO employees and serious citizens with a document of record comment and a starting point for further research on peacekeeping and related topics This is achieved not only by the provision of basic documents on CD ROM such as Security Council Resolutions and Reports of the UN Secretary General but also by expert commentaries on world events Peacekeeping is treated in a pragmatic light seen as a form of international military cooperation for the preservation or restoration of international peace and security Attention is focused not only on UN peacekeeping operations but other missions as well This Yearbook is the continuation of the journal International Peacekeeping

China's and Italy's Participation in Peacekeeping

Operations Andrea de Guttry,Emanuele Sommario,Lijiang Zhu,2014-04-28 Participation in international peace operations has become a key component of the foreign policy strategy of many countries worldwide Italy and China have been and are currently involved in various efforts to maintain and promote international peace and security including Peacekeeping Operations PKOs This book offers a description of the two countries engagement in international peace operations analyzing it through the lenses of law sociology history and politics The specific experiences of Italy and China provide an excellent opportunity for comparing and contrasting how and why foreign powers intervene in the name of peace At the same time this book focuses on a number of crucial challenges PKOs are currently facing training of personnel ensuring accountability effectively assisting war torn States in their rehabilitation effort and tries to explain how Italy China and other international actors are trying to respond to the many dilemmas and contradictions of postwar peace Contributors include academics from a wide range of disciplines and interests diplomats and practitioners involved in international peace operations

Military Life Thomas W. Britt,Carl Andrew Castro,Amy B. Adler,2005-12-30 With global commitments and combat duty our armed forces face life threatening challenges on a daily basis However less visible threats also impact the mental health of our military men and women Experts examine challenges on the battlefield such as women coming to terms with life after being prisoners of war or soldiers dealing with mistakenly killing civilians But life in the armed forces presents less dramatic daily challenges Away from the front lines soldiers have to raise their families sometimes as single parents Children have to learn what it s like to be in a military family and to make sense of war Gay or lesbian officers cope with a don t ask don t tell policy An unprecedented range of contributors military officers medical doctors psychologists psychiatrists and professors take us onto the bases and the battlefields and inside the minds of military personnel who face far greater challenges than most of us ever see in the headlines These volumes also highlight factors that make members of the military resilient and stable as well as programs and practices that can ease the psychological burdens of military personnel families and children Readers can better understand how society views our military and military operations and how each one of us can play a role in supporting our armed forces The Psychologist ,2005 Multicultural Work in Five United Nations Organisations Dagmar Kiefer,2009 This book aims at developing an understanding of multicultural work in five Organisations of the United Nations The context of international organisations differs from international companies amongst others with regards to the legal base the financial and operational agenda and human resource practices The purpose of this study is to explore which factors are a trigger a barrier and or an influence on team and group work in this specific context Based on 50 semi structured personal interviews which were analysed within the framework of constant comparison method a typology of multicultural work is provided Moreover this study offers an integrative view of the reciprocal relationships between organisation management group and individual Bibliographic Index ,2004 Case Incidents in Counseling for International Transitions Nancy Arthur,Paul Pedersen,2008 International Work Transitions International Student Transitions Immigrant and Refugee Transitions Military and Peacekeeping Transitions Suicide and the Military Alexander Vilens,2009 Suicidal behaviour is an important issue in the military There are some specific problems arising in the military surrounding An army is a closed system that may restrict personal freedoms Many servicemen loose significant relationships and have financial and psychological problems An army is an aggressive masculine community and sometimes aggression is a part of the staff training Firearms as a means of suicide are available in the military A combination of psychosocial problems with availability of firearms contributes to incidents of suicide in the military This book is dedicated to the relationship between military service and suicidal behaviour The impact of peacekeeping missions on suicidal behaviour is also discussed This book will be of interest to physicians psychologists other clinicians experts in public health management and military people American Book Publishing Record ,2004 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005
