Public Administration An Action Orientation Brooks Cole Series In Public Administration:

Public Administration Robert B. Denhardt, 1991 As its title implies PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION AN ACTION ORIENTATION encourages students to take action and to become active participants in public administration Robert Denhardt and Joseph Grubbs instruct readers on how to influence the operations of public agencies helping them learn to affect positive changes regardless of whether they are working outside the agency as citizens or within the agency as managers With a strong emphasis on ethics PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION introduces the theories and scholarly literature of the field In addition it increases students chances of being effective by developing such personal and interpersonal skills as personal management communication delegation motivation and decision making This edition includes many new non profit examples throughout making it equally appropriate for courses in the management of profit or non profit organizations

Public Administration in India Krishna K Tummala, 1996 Defining Public Administration Jay M. Shafritz, Jr., 2018-03-05 This anthology Defining Public Administration is designed to assist beginning and intermediate level students of public policy and to stir the imaginations of readers concerned with public policy and administration The forty five articles included in the text are all reprinted from the International Encyclopedia of Public Policy and Administration and these accessible interesting articles have been assembled to offer a sample of the riches to be found within the larger work The articles provide definitions of the vocabulary of public policy and administration as it is used throughout the world from the smallest towns to the largest national bureaucracies Defining Public Administration is organized into twelve parts Each part focuses on a domain pertinent to the study of public administration including overviews policy making intergovernmental relations bureaucracy organization behavior public management strategic management performance management human resource management financial management auditing and accountability and ethics An Inner Voice for Public Administration Nancy Murray, 1997-09-23 Murray seeks to demonstrate how Eastern philosophy can contribute to the development of Western public administration theory and practice She views the end of the 20th century as an epoch making time in which the limitations of modern thought need to be examined Murray shares the belief held by many public administration scholars that a reconceptualization of the field is in order She contributes to that end by focusing on individual administrators and the problems they face as they continuously struggle to balance political exigencies and governmental processes in a society that simply does not understand As caretakers of the public trust administrators deserve a profession that provides a philosophy of administration designed to guide them in the maturation process that is essential to self development Murray has chosen ideas and characters from the East as a guide to development of a philosophy of administration for individuals committed to public service Coupled with certain Western teachings particularly Jungian analytical psychology this book inquires into the elevation of human thought and action Murray challenges public administrators to aspire to their profession as to a higher calling This will be of particular interest to scholars and researchers in public administration and to administrators as well Rehabilitation Issues, Problems, and Prospects in Boot Camp Brent Benda, Nathaniel J. Pallone, 2013-04-03 Boot camps what are their effects on criminal behavior Public and political support for boot camps as alternative correctional facilities has rarely faltered since their inception decades ago though their efficacy remains uncertain Rehabilitation Issues Problems and Prospects in Boot Camp explores all facets of the controversial issue from the attitudes and perceptions of the public to the political motivations in maintaining them on to the latest research on the camps and their graduates Respected authorities discuss boot camps effectiveness on diverse groups according to age gender race and correctional facility Cost factors between boot camps and other correctional institutions are compared along with the latest criminal recidivism data Boot camps provide inmates with an uncomfortable paramilitary style environment with an eye toward shorter incarceration time lower costs and more positive effects on criminal behavior Does this correctional model work as anticipated Rehabilitation Issues Problems and Prospects in Boot Camp gives you the facts revealing the public and political arguments for and against boot camps as well as the research on the theoretical predictors of criminal recidivism and the differing attitudes of attendees toward the facilities according to gender and race Critical policy issues are identified and discussed in depth with particular emphasis given to the positive and negative aspects of rehabilitation possibilities of boot camps Helpful tables clearly illustrate statistics while extensive references provide opportunities for further insight Rehabilitation Issues Problems and Prospects in Boot Camp explores questions such as criminal recidivism what are the theoretical predictors what effect does gender have on criminal recidivism what is the effect of this hypermasculine paramilitary prison environment have on males and females what are the differences between Native American and non Native American perceptions of boot camp is the perceived severity of boot camp different for gender what is the process for policymaking in creating and maintaining boot camps what role does politics play in the continuation of boot camps what corrections to boot camp facilities should be made based upon evidence and research Rehabilitation Issues Problems and Prospects in Boot Camp is a thorough examination of the social and political issues about boot camps that makes essential reading for educators students sociologists criminologists psychologists counselors and criminal justice professionals Teaching Your First Class Bruce D. McDonald III, William Hatcher, 2024-07-29 Doctoral programs provide training and mentorship for engaging in research but they rarely provide training on how to be effective in the classroom leading to many graduates obtaining their first faculty position with little to no teaching These new faculty need a resource to help them navigate such difficult terrain and be successful teachers This book was crafted with them in mind and is a straightforward guide for the new instructor in a higher education classroom This book discusses the latest research about how to be effective in the classroom covers topics ranging from classroom management to incorporating case studies to understanding student evaluations focuses on learning in the virtual classroom with chapters dedicated to different course delivery modalities incorporates effective exercises used in the classroom that are based on evidence showing how the activities promote learning includes chapters with strategies concerning how instructors can assess their success in the classroom and become better teachers comes with a new introduction and is supplemented by review questions Teaching Your First Class is a highly valuable reading for all those engaged in initial teacher education professional development and new faculty The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Public Affairs Education
