Das Menschenbild des Thomasevangeliums Enno Edzard Popkes, 2007 English summary Enno Edzard Popkes investigates the anthropological traits of the Coptic Gospel of Thomas especially its comprehension of individuality and sociality the term monachos and the motif of the image character of human existence The analysis shows that this writing can be understood as a Gnostic work in terms of content as well as the technique of its argument and composition It is not merely an early Gnostic writing with only first signs of concepts which were expanded in later Gnostic traditions The Coptic Gospel of Thomas presupposes an already fully developed Gnostic anthropology German description Das Thomasevangelium zieht eine besondere Aufmerksamkeit auf sich Bei keiner anderen ausserkanonischen Schrift wird derartig kontrovers diskutiert ob sie fruhe Jesus Traditionen enthält die noch nicht von den Deutungsversuchen des fruhen Christentums überformt sind Lange Zeit wurde die Forschung durch die Frage dominiert ob sich auf der Basis der koptischen Übersetzung und den griechischen Fragmenten des Thomasevangeliums fruhere Textstadien rekonstruieren lassen die neue Erkenntnisse über die Worte und Taten Jesu und über die Identitätsfindungsprozesse der fruhen Jesusbewegung ermöglichen Eine vernachlässigte Aufgabe besteht jedoch darin das koptische Thomasevangelium als ein eigenständiges Zeugnis zu würdigen Bisher wurde auch nur selten analysiert zu welchen konkreten gnostischen Traditionsbildungen sich Bezüge erkennen lassen und in welchem Verhältnis es zu weiteren gnostischen Originalzeugnissen steht Dieser Aufgabe widmet sich Enno Edzard Popkes indem er das Menschenbild des Thomasevangeliums analysiert in welchem das theologische Profil dieses Werkes eindrucklich zu Tage tritt Dabei zeigt sich dass das koptische Thomasevangelium inhaltlich sachlich und argumentations und kompositionstechnisch als ein gnostisches Werk verstanden werden kann Es handelt sich nicht nur um ein fruhgnostisches Werk in welchem lediglich ansatzweise Konzeptionen vorliegen die in späteren gnostischen Traditionsbildungen ausgearbeitet werden Die einzig vollständig erhaltene Fassung des Thomasevangeliums setzt vielmehr ein bereits voll entwickeltes gnostisches Menschenbild voraus

Paul and the Gift John M. G. Barclay, 2017-09-11 John Barclay explores Pauline theology anew from the perspective of grace Arguing that Paul's theology of grace is best approached in light of ancient notions of gift Barclay describes Paul's relationship to Judaism in a fresh way Barclay focuses on divine gift giving which for Paul he says is focused and fulfilled in the gift of Christ He both offers a new appraisal of Paul's theology of the Christ event as gift as it comes to expression in Galatians and Romans and presents a nuanced and detailed consideration of the history of reception of Paul including Augustine Luther Calvin and Barth

Evil Within and Without Miryam T. Brand, 2013-05-15 Miryam T Brand explores how texts of the Second Temple period address the theological problem of the existence of sin and describe the source of human sin By surveying the relevant Apocrypha Pseudepigrapha and Dead Sea Scrolls as well as the works of Philo and where relevant Josephus the study determines the extent to which texts presentation of sin is influenced by genre and sectarian identification and identifies central worldviews regarding sin in the Second Temple period The analysis is divided into two parts the first explores texts that reflect a conviction that the source of sin is an innate human inclination and the second analyzes texts that depict sin as caused by demons The author demonstrates that the genre or purpose of a text is frequently a determining factor in its representation of sin particularly influencing the text's portrayal of sin as the result of human inclination versus demonic influence and sin as a free choice or as predetermined fact Second Temple authors and redactors chose representations of sin in accordance with their aims Thus prayers reflecting the experience of helplessness when encountering God present the desire to sin as impossible to overcome without divine assistance In contrast covenantal texts sectarian texts explaining the nature of the covenant emphasize freedom of choice and the human ability to turn away from the desire to sin Genre however is not the only determining factor regarding how sin is presented in these texts Approaches to sin in sectarian texts frequently built upon already accepted ideas reflected in nonsectarian literature adding aspects such as predestination the periodization of evil and a division of humanity into righteous members and evil nonmembers

The Spirit within Me Carol A. Newsom, 2021-10-12 The first full length study of the evolution of self and agency in ancient Israelite anthropology Conceptions of the self have received significant recent attention in philosophy anthropology and cultural history Scholars argue that the introspective self of the modern West is a distinctive phenomenon that cannot be projected back onto the cultures of antiquity While acknowledging such difference is vital it can lead to an inaccurate flattening of the ancient self In this study Carol A Newsom explores the assumptions that govern ancient Israelite views of the self and its moral agency before the fall of Judah as well as striking developments during the Second Temple period She demonstrates how the collective trauma of the destruction of the Temple catalyzed changes in the experience of the self in Israelite literature including first person singular prayers notions of self alienation and emerging understandings of a defective heart and will Examining novel forms of spirituality as well as sectarian texts Newsom chronicles the evolving inward gaze in ancient Israelite literature unveiling how introspection in Second Temple Judaism both parallels and differs from forms of introspective selfhood in Greco Roman cultures
