

Struggling States

- ▶ The colonial legacy: The majority of states that are struggling in the current global nation-state system are former European colonies.
- ▶ encomienda system A forced labor system introduced by the Spanish during the conquest of the Americas that effectively transferred indigenous land to the Conquistadors and made the local populations landless slaves.
- ▶ Neo-colonialism is another factor contributing to the struggles of former colonies to establish themselves as successful independent states
- ▶ Neo-colonialism refers to the involvement of more powerful states in the domestic affairs of less powerful ones.

Race And Clab Struggles In A Colonial State:

The Palgrave Handbook of African Politics, Governance and Development Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2017-10-10 This handbook constitutes a single collection of well researched articles and essays on African politics governance and development from the pre colonial through colonial to the post colonial eras Over the course of these interconnected periods African politics have evolved with varied experiences across different parts of the continent As politics is embedded both in the economy and the society Africa has witnessed some changes in politics economics demography and its relations with the world in ways that requires in depth analysis This work provides an opportunity for old and new scholars to engage in the universe of the debate around African politics governance and development and will serve as a ready reference material for students researchers policy makers and investors that are concerned with these issues

Race, Ethnicity, and Violence in South Sudan Amir Idris, 2024-06-19 The purpose of this book is to understand how and why liberators of South Sudan have become perpetrators of ethnically driven violence How and why did violence happen immediately after independence in South Sudan South Sudan slid into civil war in December 2013 just two years after winning its hard won independence A great deal has been written about the conflict and violence of this period much of which emphasizes the notion that the root causes of the conflict can be traced to the ethnic division and hatred among the population or the lack of state capacity to manage ethnic diversity and hostilities However the existing literature exhibits important analytical gaps focusing primarily on the state of the violence and the immediate political history of South Sudan dating back to its political independence in 2011 but lacking critical analysis of historical and anthropological interpretations of state and society This book addresses these gaps in knowledge and understanding and in so doing seeks to explain how and why liberators become perpetrators of violence and how the intersection of the legacies of slavery colonialism and national liberation struggle contributed to violence in South Sudan Through a comprehensive exploration of identity and violence within the broader context of state formation the book sheds light on why those who sought sovereignty may turn against their own drawing parallels with colonial discourse It aspires to provide nuanced frameworks and empirical insight for scholars students practitioners and policymakers engaged in South Sudan politics development and peacebuilding

Political Protest in Contemporary Kenya Jacob Mwathi Mati, 2020-02-04 This book analyses the emergence strategies and outcomes of the struggle to embed democratic governance and constitutional order in Kenya showcasing both the power and the limits of citizen agency in the struggle to transform a postcolonial African state Utilising data from primary interviews media and existing literature this book analyses the emergence diffusion operational strategies and outcomes of Kenyan constitutional reform struggles with a view to highlighting both the power and limits of social movement in transforming a postcolonial African state It engages intersections of social movement and theories of democratisation to probe the production operations and outcomes of the disruptive yet creative power of the movements at the centre of the struggle to transform the Kenyan constitution The book also appraises the meanings of and developments after the promulgation of the 2010 constitution with a view to illuminating the prospects for a transformative democratic political order in Kenya This book is a useful tool in understanding the struggles specific to Kenya but also offers insights into other democratic struggles on the African continent and beyond This book will be of interest to students and scholars of social movements and political change in Africa in general and Kenya in particular Problems of Greater Britain Dilke,1890

Mapping Global Justice Arnaud Kurze,Christopher K. Lamont,2022-10-14 Persistent international conflicts increasing inequality in many regions or the world and acute environmental and climate related threats to humanity call for a better understanding of the processes actors and tools available to face the challenges of achieving global justice This book offers a broad and multidisciplinary survey of global justice bridging the gap between theory and practice by connecting conceptual frameworks with a panoply of case studies and an in depth discussion of practical challenges Connecting these critical aspects to larger moral and ethical debates is essential for thinking about large abstract ideas and applying them directly to specific contexts Core content includes Key debates in global justice from across philosophy postcolonial studies political science sociology and criminology The origins of global justice and the development of the human rights agenda peacekeeping and post conflict studies Global poverty and sustainable development Global security and transnational crime Environmental justice public health and well being Rather than providing a blueprint for the practice of global justice this text problematizes efforts to cope with many justice related issues The pedagogical approach is designed to map the difficulties that exist between theory and praxis encourage critical thinking and fuel debates to help seek alternative solutions Bringing together perspectives from a wealth of disciplines this book is essential reading for courses on global justice across criminology sociology political science anthropology philosophy and law Experiments in Democracy Cheryl Black,Jonathan Shandell,2016-06 In Experiments in Democracy theatre historians explore the ways progressive artists sought to connect isolated racial and cultural groups in pursuit of a more just and democratic society Unhappy Valley Bruce Berman,John Lonsdale,1992 They also highlight some of the shortcomings of ideas about development explore the limitations of narrowly structuralist Marxist theory of the state and reflect on the role of history in the future of Africa

Africana Critical Theory Reiland Rabaka,2009-01-16 Building on and going far beyond W E B Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty First Century and Du Bois s Dialectics Reiland Rabaka s Africana Critical Theory innovatively identifies and analyzes continental and diasporan African contributions to classical and contemporary critical theory This book represents a climatic critical theoretical clincher that cogently demonstrates how Du Bois s rarely discussed dialectical thought interdisciplinarity intellectual history making radical political activism and world historical multiple liberation movement leadership helped to inaugurate a distinct Africana tradition of critical theory With chapters on W E B Du Bois C L R James Negritude Aime Cesaire and Leopold Senghor Frantz Fanon and Amilcar Cabral Africana Critical Theory endeavors to accessibly offer contemporary critical theorists an intellectual archaeology of the Africana tradition of critical theory and a much needed dialectical deconstruction and reconstruction of black radical politics These six seminal figures collective thought and texts clearly cuts across several disciplines and therefore closes the chasm between Africana Studies and critical theory constantly demanding that intellectuals not simply think deep thoughts develop new theories and theoretically support radical politics but be and constantly become political activists social organizers and cultural workers that is folk the Italian critical theorist Antonio Gramsci referred to as organic intellectuals In this sense then the series of studies gathered in Africana Critical Theory contribute not only to African Studies African American Studies Caribbean Studies Cultural Studies Gender Studies and Postcolonial Studies but also to contemporary critical theoretical discourse across an amazingly wide range of traditional disciplines and radical political activism outside of and in many instances absolutely against Europe s ivory towers and the absurdities of the American academe

Ethnicity, Nationalism, and Democracy in Africa Bethwell A. Ogot, 1996 The papers included in this volume are selections from the forty contributions that were made at the seminar in Kericho Kenya from 28-31 1995 The Theme of the seminar was Ethnicity Nationalism and Democracy in Africa

Gender, Lineage, And Ethnicity In Southern Africa Jean Davison, 1997 Based on extensive fieldwork this study telescopes how lineage ideologies are constructed and change over time in the Zambezi River region where matriliney and patriliney coexist The author challenges the notion that patrilineality has subsumed matrilineal formations and demonstrates that despite colonial policies that privileged patrilineal gender relations of production a preference that was extended by the postcolonial states matrilineal relations of production have been adroitly sustained and even dominate in large parts of Malawi northern Mozambique and parts of Zambia and Zimbabwe Looking specifically at the linkages between gender and ethnicity in the construction of lineage ideologies the author offers a comparative study of women s changing status in the region and explores the implications for development policies at both the local and state levels

History of Humanity: The twentieth century Sigfried J. de Laet, Ahmad Hasan Dani, José Luis Lorenzo, R. B. Nunn, 1994

The University Socialist Club and the Contest for Malaya Kah Seng Loh, Cheng Tju Lim, Edgar Liao, Guo-Quan Seng, 2025-10-01 The book using a small group of left wing student activists as a prism explores the complex politics that underpinned the making of nation states in Singapore and Malaysia after World War Two While most works have viewed the period in terms of political contestation groups the book demonstrates how it is better understood as involving a shared modernist project framed by British planned decolonization This pursuit of nationalist modernity was characterized by an optimism to replace the colonial system with a new state and mobilize the people into a new relationship with the state according them new responsibilities as well as new rights This book based on student writings official documents and oral history interviews brings to life various modernist strands liberal democratic ethnic communal and Fabian and Marxist socialist seeking to determine the form of postcolonial Malaya It uncovers a hitherto little seen world where the meanings of loud slogans were fluid vague and deeply contested This world also comprised as much convergence between the groups as conflict including collaboration between the Socialist Club and other political and student groups which were once its rivals while its main ally eventually became its nemesis Public Opinion ,1896
