Race Ing Moral Formation:

How Journalists Engage Sue Robinson, 2023 A unique theory of trust building in engagement journalism that proposes journalists move to an ethic of care as they prioritize listening and learning within communities instead of propping up problematic institutions In How Journalists Engage Sue Robinson explores how journalists of different identities especially racial enact trusting relationships with their audiences Drawing from case studies community work interviews and focus groups she documents a growing built environment around trust building and engagement journalism that represents the first major paradigm shift of the press s core values in more than a century As Robinson shows journalists are being trained to take on new roles and skillsets around listening and learning in addition to normative routines related to being a watchdog and storyteller She demonstrates how this movement mobilizes the nurturing of personal organizational and institutional relationships that people have with information sources news brands journalists and each other Developing a new theory of trust building Robinson calls for journalists to grapple actively with their own identities especially the privileges biases and marginalization attached to them and those of their communities resulting in a more intentional and effective moral voice focused on justice and equity through the news practice of an ethic of care

Gist, Travis J. Bristol, 2022-10-15 Teachers of Color and Indigenous Teachers are underrepresented in public schools across the United States of America with Black Indigenous and People of Color making up roughly 37% of the adult population and 50% of children but just 19% of the teaching force Yet research over decades has indicated their positive impact on student learning and social and emotional development particularly for Students of Color and Indigenous Students A first of its kind the Handbook of Research on Teachers of Color and Indigenous Teachers addresses key issues and obstacles to ethnoracial diversity across the life course of teachers careers such as recruitment and retention professional development and the role of minority serving institutions Including chapters from leading researchers and policy makers the Handbook is designed to be an important resource to help bridge the gap between scholars practitioners and policy makers In doing so this research will serve as a launching pad for discussion and change at this critical moment in our country s history The volume s goal is to drive conversations around the issue of ethnoracial teacher diversity and to provide concrete practices for policy makers and practitioners to enable them to make evidence based decisions for supporting an ethnoracially diverse educator workforce now and in the future Urban Education for the 21st Century Festus E. Obiakor, Floyd D. Beachum, 2005 This timely book exposes the complexities and realities facing urbanness and urban schools that are inadequately funded and denigrated along with students who continue to be misidentified misassessed miscategorized misplaced and misinstructed by illprepared and unprepared educators and service providers The text very successfully demonstrates the comprehensive nature and connectedness of problems and prospects in urban education This book will be an added resource to researchers scholars educators and service providers It should be an excellent required text for graduate and undergraduate courses in all branches of education Addition ally the book will be of interest to education administrators at all levels public school teachers policy makers and change agents The thirteen chapters discuss and explore the following primary topics Urban education and the quest for democracy equity and excellence Educating urban learners with and without special needs Personnel preparation and urban schools Teaching and learning in urban schools Educational leadership in urban schools Insights into educational psychology and what urban practitioners must know Managing violence in urban schools Financing urban schools Reducing the power of whiteness in urban schools Promises and challenges of building and the future perspectives of urban education Interrogating Critical Pedagogy Pierre Wilbert Orelus, Rochelle Brock, 2014-11-13 Educators teacher practitioners and social activists have successfully used critical pedagogy as a tool to help marginalized students develop awareness and seek alternative solutions to their poor educational and socioeconomic situations However this theory is often criticized as being mostly dominated by privileged white males bringing issues of race and gender to the forefront This volume provides insight on how critical pedagogy can be helpful to scholars and teachers alike in their analysis of racial gender linguistic and political problems It features a wide range of respected scholars who examine the way and the degree to which critical pedagogy can be used to improve education for students of color women and other marginalized groups EDUCATIONAL STUDIES , 2006

Encyclopedia of Educational Leadership and Administration Fenwick W. English, 2006-02-16 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Educational Leadership and Administration presents the most recent theories research terms concepts ideas and histories on educational leadership and school administration as taught in preparation programs and practiced in schools and colleges today With more than 600 entries written by more than 200 professors graduate students practitioners and association officials the two volumes of this encyclopedia represent the most comprehensive knowledge base of educational leadership and school administration that has as yet been compiled Re-visioning Science Education from Feminist Perspectives Kathryn Scantlebury, 2010 Further these women work in educational institutions that have higher status and prestige than their sisters in elementary middle or high schools Second female professors are bearded mothers Women who have engaged in science education value rationality and logic and assume authority as participants in academe The use of logic the acceptance of authority and the assumption of power are masculine gender stereotyped characteristics This situation places women in a paradox because others including peers and students expect them to display stereotypic female gender dispositions such as mothering nurturing sacrificing their needs for others and a commitment to the institution
